Dear Mr. Barnett:

I am currently an elected member of the Seattle City Council. Enclosed is my F-1A Form as well as the copy of PDC No. 2923 Findings, Conclusions, and Order dated May 3, 2010 pertaining to my request for a modification of reporting requirements of RCW 42.17.241. Last year the Washington State PDC reviewed and granted my request for a modification pertaining to the WH Bagshaw Company's list of customers. I am hereby renewing my previous request.

In 2009 and 2010 I petitioned both the State PDC and your office to be relieved from the requirement of revealing the names of the WH Bagshaw Company's list of customers. As stated in the file, my husband, Brad Bagshaw was the Corporate Secretary and part-time director of the WH Bagshaw Company located in Nashua, New Hampshire. My husband received no compensation for his services and I have no involvement in the company whatsoever.

The WH Bagshaw Company is a closely held family company that does no business in the State of Washington. As described in the enclosed documents, disclosing the list of customers would cause significant hardship for this small company.

I am hereby renewing my request for modification and have included copies of the materials submitted to and received from the PDC last year. Please note that this is the last time I will be making the waiver request because Brad has sold his interest in the company and no longer serves on the board.

Thank you in advance for re-approving this request.

Yours truly,

Sally Bagshaw
