RATTLESNAKE LAKE RECREATION AREA

Seattle Public Utilities

LOCAL TRAILS

1 TRAIL RATTLESNAKE LAKE
LENGTH ¾ mile to Cedar River Watershed Education Center
DIFFICULTY Very Easy
USERS Foot, Bike, ADA Accessible

2 TRAIL RATTLESNAKE LEDGE & MTN
LENGTH 2 miles to Ledge
11 miles to Snoqualmie Point Park
DIFFICULTY Moderate to Difficult
USERS Foot only

3 TRAIL IRON HORSE STATE PARK
LENGTH 18 miles to Snoqualmie Pass Tunnel
DIFFICULTY Easy to Moderate
USERS Foot, Bike, Horse

4 TRAIL SNOQUALMIE VALLEY
LENGTH 8 miles to North Bend
DIFFICULTY Easy
USERS Foot, Bike, Horse

MAP LEGEND

- Dirt Trail
- Gravel Trail
- Paved Trail
- Paved Road
- Locked Gate
- No Trespassing

The Cedar River Municipal Watershed is closed to public access to protect the drinking water supply of more than one million people in the greater Seattle area.

The Cedar River Watershed Education Center connects people to the source of Seattle's drinking water and its unique cultural and natural history, inspiring confidence, stewardship and sustainability.

206.733.9421
CRWprograms@seattle.gov
www.seattle.gov/util/crwec