Seattle Central Waterfront Park Planning Feasibility Study

Opportunities

Steinbrueck Park
- Expand current uses
- Programmable spaces

Pier 62/63
- Relocate
- Reconfigure
- Remove
- Connect to Aquarium

PC-1 North
- Low profile
- Market-lid connection
- Maximum development

The Lid
- Commercial emphasis
- Open space emphasis
- One-sided development
- Two-sided development

Connections
- Bridge
- At-grade

Shoreline Enhancement
- Accessible beach
- Nearshore habitat

Waterfront Park
Short-term
- Address safety and structural issues

Long-term
- Enhance habitat and provide educational opportunities

Seattle Parks and Recreation
MAKERS architecture • urban design
ANCHOR
ERNST FARR