

"Celebrating Native Americans and the Habitat"

On behalf of the City of Seattle Native American Employees – CANOES/SPU Native Affinity Group is proud to present:

Native American Heritage Celebration 2010

An hour with Billy Frank Jr ~ THE BOLDT DECISION: 36 years later

Panel Discussion: Billy Frank Jr., (Nisqually) Chairman NW Indian Fisheries Commission

When: Tuesday, November 2, 2010

Where: Bertha Landes City Hall

Time: 11 AM – 2PM

Mayor Mike McGinn ~ Proclamation

Please join us and learn about the beautiful Northwest world we live in from a Native American perspective. Internationally re-knowned tribal leader Billy Frank will discuss climate change, threats to our waters and lands, success stories, tribal traditions, and more. This is a unique opportunity to hear first hand from the elder as he shares wisdom about preserving our communities and restoring our connections to the Earth.

~This event is open to all city employees, managers, directors, supervisors. Please honor and respect our guests & performances, - we encourage employees please obtain supervisor approval to attend the entire length of the celebration, when possible.

~Featured Performance ~ Azteca Dancers & Marta Idowu Poetry
~ Singing and Drumming ~ Coyote Soldier Boyz Drum Group~
~ Light Refreshments will be served ~
