

Center City Seattle

An Evening with Jaime Lerner

A stimulating presentation on sustainable growth from a truly global perspective

Lerner, former Mayor of Curitiba and Governor of Parana State, Brazil, is well known for his pioneering work in sustainable growth, and is particularly noted for his work in public transportation. He just completed a term as president of the International Union of Architects (UIA).

He has received numerous awards, including:

- United Nations Environmental Program Award
- Child and Peace Award from UNICEF
- World Technology Award for Transportation
- UIA's 2002 Sir Robert Mathew Prize for the Improvement of Quality of Human Settlements
