

Square Feet by Discipline

Which arts discipline has the biggest footprint?

According to our early numbers* the “major” arts disciplines are all relatively equally represented. The surprise here is the ascendancy of multidisciplinary spaces, spaces that present more than one arts discipline. Are the days of overspecialized arts spaces waning?

*We should note that at this point we believe “cinema” to be severely under-counted due to the difficulty of getting information from nationally-owned chain theaters.