A Public Presentation by
Scott Cline, Seattle City Archivist

Tuesday, June 21, 2016
1 – 2 pm
Bertha Knight Landes Room
Seattle City Hall
600 Fourth Avenue

Scott Cline has been the City Archivist for over 31 years. Since 1985, the Archives has preserved millions of documents, photographs, maps, and audio/visual resources created by City government. In this talk, Scott will show some of his favorite items from the collection and explain how they help us understand the history of Seattle.
