

SEATTLE CITY COUNCIL | POSITION 9

COUNCIL PRESIDENT M. LORENA GONZÁLEZ

COMMISSIONER SOUGHT FOR ETHICS AND ELECTIONS COMMISSION

The Office of Seattle City Council President M. Lorena González is looking for a candidate to serve as an appointed Commissioner on the Seattle Ethics and Elections Commission (SEEC).

The SEEC is a seven-member, volunteer quasi-judicial body that interprets and administers Seattle's Democracy Voucher Program, as well as the Whistleblower Protection, Ethics, Elections, Lobbying and Voters' Pamphlet Codes. The SEEC advises the City Council and the Mayor on promoting ethics in government and appoints and oversees the work of an executive director, who is charged with implementing SEEC decisions. Commissioners act as judges when a person is charged with violating one of the Commission-administered codes, and issue advisory opinions. Through staff, the SEEC publishes guides to the codes it enforces, and conducts educational programs on the Commission-administered codes.

The SEEC meets the first Wednesday of every month at 4:00 p.m., and occasionally Commissioners need to attend special meetings. Commission members usually spend between two and five hours per month on SEEC business, although the workload can vary.

Commissioners serve three-year terms and can be reappointed. The successful candidate will be selected by the six current commissioners, and must be confirmed by the City Council. The appointee's terms will start early in 2021 and run until December 31, 2023. Women, persons with disabilities, sexual and gender minorities, young persons, senior citizens, Black, Indigenous, and Persons of Color (BIPOC), and immigrants are encouraged to apply.

Residency in the City of Seattle, while not required, is an asset. Commissioners cannot be active in Seattle election campaigns during their time on the Commission.

To be considered for appointment to the SEEC, please send a letter of interest and resume by March 1, 2021 by e-mail to vy.nguyen@seattle.gov, or by mail to:
