

1           And noting that much of that contemplated legislation likely lies outside the scope of the 2 Settlement Agreement in this case, but some aspects of the proposal may implicate subjects
3 governed by the Settlement Agreement;

4           And desiring to avoid undue delay, and recognizing the City of Seattle's ongoing obligation
5 outside the Settlement Agreement to oversee its police department and the City Council's authority
6 and duty to legislate appropriately to provide that oversight;

7           And acknowledging that the Monitor has had the City of Seattle's detailed proposal since 8 August 21, 2015 and desiring that the Monitor advise the Court and the parties expeditiously which, 9 if any, components of the City's proposed plan to strengthen the police accountability system, in the 10 Monitor's view, implicate provisions of the Settlement Agreement;

11           The Court directs the Monitor to submit, by November 2, 2015, to the parties and the Court, 12 an assessment of which, if any, provisions of the City's proposed plan implicate provisions of the 13 Settlement Agreement; and directs the parties to file any objection to the Monitor's assessment, 14 along with any related proposed Orders, by November 9, 2015.
