

WE'RE FILMING IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD!

The unprecedented impacts from COVID-19 include the pause of film production since March. Pursuant to the Governor's reopening of film production in Washington State, the Seattle Office of Film + Music is working with productions to ensure they are taking measures to meet Seattle-King County Public Health guidelines and Washington State safe set protocols. Description of Activity and Impact Mitigation Measures

In this section: Please describe in technical detail what your filming activity will entail. Explain the production footprint, cast and crew size, number of vehicles if using parking, and any other applicable information. Describe how you will mitigate the impacts listed above, including PA's allowing access between takes, providing "Filming in Progress" a-frames, etc. You are required to attached a site plan to this document when you distribute that illustrates these points and shows your activity.

We will work to accommodate any special needs that may be required by neighbors and businesses during filming.
