FILM + MUSIC + INTERACTIVE HAPPY HOUR WITH ROB DUNLOP OF KCTS 9

FMI HAPPY HOUR

Join us on Wednesday, July 29 with featured presenter Rob Dunlop, President and CEO of KCTS 9 (PBS), as he explores the current media environment and shares how KCTS 9 is adapting to create long-term sustainability in the midst of disruptive forces that are upending the more traditional methods of content creation and distribution.

ART ZONE WITH NANCY GUPPY

ART ZONE

This week is a "Best of Band" show (and truly the final show of the season!), featuring a killer mixtape of bands from the past nine months. Check out: Tuatara, Lady Rizo, Ayrton Jones, Say Hi, Sam Boshnack Quintet, Overton Berry, Aaron Crawford, and Statics. The show airs Friday at 8 p.m. on Seattle Channel 21 and streams online at the Art Zone webpage.

INDUSTRY NEWS

BUMBERSHOOT COMEDY AND WORDS & IDEAS LINEUPS ANNOUNCED

BUMBERSHOOT

Bumbershoot has announced the lineups for its Comedy and Words & Ideas programming for 2015, featuring national acts and Pacific Northwest-grown talent. Bumbershoot's popular Words & Ideas programming features conversations, performances, and readings that explore the points where pop culture, new media, literature, theories, and trends intersect and explode.

KICKSTART SEATTLE FILM + MUSIC PROJECTS

KICKSTARTER

This week, check out these Seattle Kickstarter campaigns: "Lose You Music Video," the music video for an electronic song from Empty Platform; "CRAVE: an original series by Aneesh Sheth," created by transgender actress and activist, Aneesh Sheth; and "This Summer," the first full length album from Brothers from Another.

OPPORTUNITIES

CALL FOR FILM SUBMISSIONS: CHILDREN'S FILM FESTIVAL SEATTLE 2016

CHILDREN'S FILM FESTIVAL SEATTLE

Children's Film Festival Seattle, an annual, competitive, international film festival presented by Northwest Film Forum, calls for films that are suitable for children ages 13 and under to screen at the 2016 festival. The festival accepts live-action and animated submissions, completed between 2013 and 2015, and entries are due by October 1, 2015.

YOUNG FILMMAKERS: MAKE A FILM AT REEL QUEER YOUTH

REEL QUEER YOUTH

LGBTQ youth and their allies, ages 13-20, have a chance to use professional cameras and editing equipment to express themselves in a safe, open, and fun environment with a team of professional filmmakers and mentors. Working in small groups, youth will complete a short film. Reel Queer Youth takes place July 20-24 at 12th Ave. Arts. Participants are requested to pay what they can ($0-295). Apply by June 30, 2015.

MEDIA DIGEST

WHAT WASHINGTON STATE'S FILM SECTOR HAS TO DO WITH TRADE

PUGET SOUND BUSINESS JOURNAL

Washington state's motion picture and TV industry directly employs 8,500 workers and pays them $348.5 million in wages. The report also found that Washington state's film industry consists of 2,150 industry-related businesses, which employ more than 37,600 people. Those statistics were released late Monday by the Motion Picture Association of America in an attempt to persuade the U.S. Senate to pass Trade Promotion Authority legislation, which gives the president greater authority to more quickly submit trade agreements to Congress.

EMP: CHRONICLER OF SEATTLE'S POP ROOTS

CROSSCUT

EMP is more or less Seattle's ultimate package - a chronicler of past rock 'n' roll and an encyclopedia of present popular culture, all in a futuristic-looking building. For the museum's 15th birthday on June 23, museum leaders threw a gigantic party in which they both celebrated EMP's accomplishments and outlined the lessons that they had learned along the way.

SEATTLE SUMMER OUTDOOR MOVIE GUIDE 2015

SEATTLE MET

Grab your blankets, lawn chairs, homemade popcorn, and pack the cooler: It's summer outdoor movie season once again. It's always interesting to see which movies have become popular across the various series; this year's winners are Big Hero 6 (which you appropriately have six chances to see) and Guardians of the Galaxy (five screenings to honor hometown Star-Lord Chris Pratt).

QUEER ROCK CAMP IS MAKING HISTORY AND CHANGING LIVES

SEATTLE WEEKLY

Queer Rock Camp empowers youth and promotes music as a way to amplify resilience and self-expression. The Seattle camp takes place June 22 - 27 at the Youngstown Cultural Arts Center, and then again in August in Olympia. Seattle Weekly profiles the event, its organizers, and how a simple idea that began in Olympia is starting to have a global impact. The Seattle Queer Rock Camp Showcase takes place this Saturday, June 27, at the Vera Project.

HOW MUCH CAN YOU MAKE IN THESE MUSIC INDUSTRY JOBS?

BILLBOARD

Billboard followed the money to determine who's pulling in the largest (and smallest) paychecks in the industry: from the tens of millions in equity awards reaped by Apple executives to a radio-station mascot's minimum wage. Check out salaries of media industry jobs from radio engineer to Saturday Night Live senior music booker.

MUSICAL TRANSCENDENCE FOR PARENTS & KIDS

RHAPSODY

Seattle's Chris Ballew (Caspar Babypants, Presidents of the United States of America) discusses the transcendent power of music shared between parents and children saying, "Forming a bond over music appreciation at a young age can lead to a lifelong connection between children and parents." He also shares a fantastic playlist to let readers hear some of the sounds behind his inspiration.

DIY PUNK LEGENDS DEAD MOON ON CANCER, RETIREMENT, AND THE EARLY DAYS

NOISEY

After many years of making ground-breaking music as seminal DIY punk band Dead Moon, Fred and Toody Cole now survive by living off the Oregon land and swigging Jack Daniels. And after 48 years of marriage, the two are celebrating their wedding anniversary by hitting the road and gigging as an acoustic duo. For a handful of those dates, they'll be reviving Dead Moon for what could be the last time.
