

Vol. 11, No. 45

June 28, 2018

CITY NEWS

WE'RE HIRING! APPLY FOR GRAPHIC DESIGN INTERNSHIP

The Seattle Office of Film + Music and Office of Economic Development are looking for a graphic design intern for the summer! The intern will support our communications team with photography and photo editing, presentation design, updating website content, and maintaining City of Seattle brand standards. This is a paid position at $15.00 per hour, working 20 hours per week.

Learn more and apply

Seattle Office of Economic Development

OFFICE OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT SEEKS SMALL BUSINESS ADVOCATE

Our partners at the Office of Economic Development are looking for a Small Business

Advocate to help provide outreach, problem solving, capacity building, and connection to resources for hundreds of Seattle businesses each year. A successful candidate for this position will have experience fostering relationships with community groups, particularly business or trade groups, chambers of commerce, economic development organizations and WMBEs.

Learn more and apply

MEET FREMONT BRIDGE'S MUSICIAN-IN-RESIDENCE

Paul Walsh has been selected to be the musician-in-residence at the northwest tower of the Fremont Bridge this summer, as part of the Seattle Department of Transportation's 1% for Art Funds administered by the Office of Arts & Culture. Walsh is a musician and composer who will use the tower space as inspiration to create a sound-based piece during his summer residency, in addition to participating in several events and a public performance.

Read more from the Office of Arts & Culture

THIS WEEK ON ART ZONE WITH NANCY GUPPY

Art Zone is celebrating summer with Art Zone Fest 2018, an all-music show featuring a few favorite bands from the past season: Stereo Embers, SassyBlack, Tiffany Wilson, The Knights of Trash, Naked Giants, Tellers, Delvon Lamarr Organ Trio, and the Barrett Martin Group with Jeff Angell.

You can catch Art Zone at 8 PM on Fridays on the Seattle Channel, or anytime online. After this week, Art Zone is taking a summer break and will be back in September with a brand new season of local art coverage.

Watch at the Seattle Channel

INDUSTRY

NEW FILM FESTIVAL COMING TO NORTH BEND

North Bend, best known as the hometown of Twin Peaks, will host the new North Bend Film Festival this summer, August 23-26. Staying true to David Lynch's strange, mysterious style, the festival will showcase innovative and unique feature films, shorts, VR experiences and more, seeking to provide a platform for emerging filmmakers.

Read more at Collider

OPPORTUNITIES

WASHINGTON FILMWORKS HIRING ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

Washington Filmworks is hiring an Administrative Assistant to support them in their mission to build and enhance the competitiveness, profile and sustainability of Washington's film industry. The Administrative Assistant will assist the office and the Executive Director in a variety of capacities. The ideal candidate should be resourceful, have excellent communication skills and be able to prioritize tasks and agenda items. Applications are due by July 25.

Learn more and apply

MUSIC CENTER OF THE NORTHWEST SEEKS EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Music Center of the Northwest, a north Seattle community music school, is looking for its next Executive Director. The new Executive Director, in partnership with the organization's Board and staff, will lead non-profit Music Center in its mission of cultivating exceptional and transformative musical experiences.

Learn more and apply

NECTAR LOUNGE SEEKS PRODUCTION MANAGER

Fremont's Nectar Lounge is looking for a Production Manager to work directly with talent buyers, artists and production staff to coordinate and procure the information needed to run successful events. The ideal candidate will have strong attention to detail, a passion for music and a proven ability to communicate well with talent. One to three years of experience in concert and/or event management is preferred.

Learn more and apply

NIGHTLIFE STAFF: ATTEND FREE STOP THE BLEED CLASS

Nightlife security and venue staff are invited to attend a free Stop the Bleed class on Monday, July 2 from 4-8 PM, to better learn how to triage and stop bleeding while waiting for EMTs to arrive. The class will be held at Havana Social on Capitol Hill (1010 East Pike Street). Class size is limited to 24; RSVP with name and the venue you work for to reserve a space.

RSVP to christopher.brownlee@seattle.gov

STUDENTS: ATTEND GLOBAL GAME JAM NEXT

The Academy of Interactive Entertainment (AiE) and Pacific Science Center are hosting the first official year of Global Game Jam Next for young creators ages 12-17. No prior experience is needed to attend. This free event will take place at the Academy of Interactive Entertainment and the Pacific Science Center July 25 - 28.

Learn more and RSVP

MEDIA DIGEST

TUF ANNOUNCES FIRST WAVE OF PARTICIPATING ARTISTS FOR TUFFEST 2018

TUF, a Seattle collective focused on uplifting marginalized voices through art and media, has announced the first wave of participating artists and workshops for TUFFEST 2018. TUFFEST is free and open to all ages, taking place on Saturday, July 14 at Judkins Park.

Read more at TUF Seattle

LOCAL MUSICIAN MARY LAMBERT RELEASES MUSIC VIDEO HONORING MARRIAGE EQUALITY

Seattle production company Hullabaloo collaborated with local musician Mary Lambert on a new music video showcasing wedding footage from hundreds of LGBTQ couples. The music video was filmed in 360 degree video and was released this week to honor Pride Month and the third anniversary of the Supreme Court's Marriage Equality Decision.

Watch the video on Youtube

BUMBERSHOOT DAY BY DAY LINEUP ANNOUNCED

The day by day lineup is out for one of the Pacific Northwest's biggest and most iconic festivals, Bumbershoot. Headliners this year include Lil Wayne, the Chainsmokers, J. Cole, Chromeo, SZA, Fleet Foxes and more. The three-day music and arts festival is Labor Day weekend, August 31 through September 2.

Read more at The Stranger

KEXP TO HOST MUSIC MEMORY DIGITIZATION LABS

KEXP is hosting a new event to help ensure that listeners' music memories that are stored on cassette tapes, VHS tapes and other formats aren't lost to time. Archivists and librarians will be on hand to assist guests with transferring video, audio, photos and posters to digital files. The event is this Saturday, July 28, at the KEXP gathering space.

Read more at Geekwire

25TH ANNIVERSARY OF SLEEPLESS IN SEATTLE

The iconic romantic comedy Sleepless in Seattle turns 25 this week, having been released on June 25, 1993. The film was shot in Seattle, Baltimore, Chicago and New York, and earned $220 million at the box office worldwide.

Read more on the making of Sleepless in Seattle

City of Seattle Office of Film + Music | www.seattle.gov/filmandmusic

