

Sources of Capital Funding
2009 Seattle Housing Levy, through 2014
 Seattle Office of Housing, July 2015

Capital Funds Leveraged
$549.8 million in Total Residential Development Costs
 Levy Rental Projects Funded in 2010-2014
 2,537 Total Units / 31 New Projects
 410 Units/ 5 Portfolio Projects

Total Units includes all rent-restricted housing units in new projects receiving Levy funding. Of these, 1,281 units are regulated as Levy-funded.

Portfolio Projects are existing low-income buildings awarded supplemental funding to address critical building improvement needs. The term of affordability is typically extended.

Other City Funding includes Bonus funds and City-administered federal HOME and CDBG funds.

Other Funding includes federal Choice Neighborhood grant, HUD 202 and 811 program funds, developer off-site performance payment and social investment contributions.