

Denim Day: Honoring Indigenous Women

Wednesday, April 24th, 2019

8:30am—11:30am

Seattle City Hall
BERTHA KNIGHT LANDES ROOM
600 4th Ave, Seattle, WA 98104

8:30am NETWORKING AND REFRESHMENTS provided by Off the Rez

9:00am WELCOME

- Prayer by Elder Cecile Hansen, Duwamish Tribe Chair
- Song by Indigenous Sisters Resistance
- Audrey Buehring, Seattle Human Services Deputy Director
- Mariko Lockhart, Interim Director, Seattle Office for Civil Rights

9:15am OPENING REMARKS

- City of Seattle Council

9:25am PANEL DISCUSSION: Sexual Violence of Native Women

- Facilitated by Marta Idowu, Seattle Office of Civil Rights

Panelists:

- Chelsea Hendrickson, Pathways to Healing, Cowlitz Indian Tribe
- Norine Hill, Founder and Executive Director of Mother Nation
- Claudia Kauffman, Former State Rep. and Founder of the Native Action Network
- Arlene Red Elk, Circle of Life Workshop Series Master Designer and Facilitator, Mother Nation

10:30am FEATURE PRESENTATION: Violence Against Women Act Reauthorization

- Introduction by Idabelle Fosse, Coalition Ending Gender-Based Violence and Co-Chair of the Seattle Women's Commission
- Presentation by Deborah Parker, Activist, Former Vice Chair of Tulalip Tribe, National Indigenous Women's Resource Center

11:00am ANNOUNCEMENT—DENIM DAY EVENING EVENT

11:10am CLOSING SONG

- Indigenous Sisters Resistance

11:30am END OF EVENT

Thank you to our co-sponsors:
Please note: media will be present at the event

