

April 2016 Senior Coffee Hour

Seattle Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens

Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens Coffee Hours are held on the third Thursday of every month at the Central Building and on other dates in Seattle neighborhoods.

The events bring community elders closer to City officials to explore topics of interest. Presentations often include cutting edge information about healthy aging, legal and planning issues, and more.

Participants learn about City programs and services, and officials hear from their constituents.

Coffee and refreshments are served.

Thursday, April 21
10:00–11:00 a.m.

The Central Building, 1st Floor Conference Room
810 3rd Avenue
(between Columbia & Marion Streets in downtown Seattle)

Come to the May coffee hour to meet genealogy librarian John LaMont from The Seattle Public Library, who can give you tips on researching your family tree online and using library and other local resources. Seattle Public Library has one of the largest collections for genealogy research in the Pacific Northwest, and Mr. LaMont has over 20 years of experience in the field.

For questions about accessibility or to request an accommodation, contact Rowena Rye (206-684-0500 or seniors@seattle.gov). Requests should be made as soon as possible but at least three days prior to the event.
