

Seattle Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens

Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens Coffee Hours are held on the third Thursday of every month at the Central Building and on other dates in Seattle neighborhoods.

The events bring community elders closer to City officials to explore topics of interest. Presentations often include cutting edge information about healthy aging, legal and planning issues, and more.

Participants learn about City programs and services, and officials hear from their constituents.

Coffee and refreshments are served.

Seattle Office for Civil Rights

Thursday, June 16
10:00–11:00 a.m.

The Central Building, 1st Floor Conference Room
810 3rd Avenue
(between Columbia & Marion Streets in downtown Seattle)

Darlene Flynn began her public service career as the legislative assistant for then Councilmember Jim Street. She went on to work as a strategic advisor at Seattle Public Utilities and as a neighborhood development manager at Department of Neighborhoods. In 2004 she joined the Seattle Office for Civil Rights as policy lead for the Race & Social Justice Initiative (RSJI) Coordinating Team. Come to the June coffee hour to learn about the initiative and the training and capacity building support provided to City departments.

For questions about meeting accessibility or to request an accommodation, contact Rowena Rye (206-684-0500 or seniors@seattle.gov). Requests should be made as soon as possible (at least three days prior to the event).
