

September 2016 Coffee Hour

Join us for a conversation with

Rene LeBeau
Seattle Ethics and Elections Commission

Thursday, September 15
10:00–11:00 a.m.

The Central Building, 1st Floor Conference Room
810 3rd Avenue
(between Columbia & Marion Streets in downtown Seattle)

Join us to learn about the City of Seattle's Democracy Voucher program—a new source of public campaign financing unlike any in the country—and the work of the Ethics and Elections Commission. The Democracy Voucher Program is the result of the voter-approved "Honest Elections" Initiative 122, which authorized a property tax levy to fund citizen contributions to City candidates, starting in 2017.

For questions about meeting accessibility or to request an accommodation, contact Rowena Rye (206-684-0500 or seniors@seattle.gov). Requests should be made as soon as possible (at least three days prior to the event).

Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens Coffee Hours are held on the third Thursday of every month at the Central Building and on other dates in Seattle neighborhoods.

The events bring community elders closer to City officials to explore topics of interest. Presentations often include cutting edge information about healthy aging, legal and planning issues, and more.

Participants learn about City programs and services, and officials hear from their constituents.

Coffee and refreshments are served.
