

Seattle Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens

Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens Coffee Hours are held on the third Thursday of every month at the Central Building and on other dates in Seattle neighborhoods.

The events bring community elders closer to City officials to explore topics of interest. Presentations often include cutting edge information about healthy aging, legal and planning issues, and more.

Participants learn about City programs and services, and officials hear from their constituents.

Coffee and refreshments are served.

February 2017 Coffee Hour

Join us for a conversation with

Steve Lee
Office of Policy and Innovation

Thursday, February 16
 10:00–11:00 a.m.

The Central Building, 1st Floor Conference Room
 810 3rd Avenue

(between Columbia & Marion Streets in downtown Seattle)

Join us for coffee and meet Steve Lee, a senior policy advisor to Mayor Ed Murray, who will discuss the Mayor's Age-Friendly Seattle initiative. The City of Seattle joined the AARP Network of Age-Friendly Communities last July.

Learn how Seattle is addressing the eight domains of an age-friendly city—civic participation and employment, communication and information, community and health services, housing, outdoor spaces and buildings, respect and social inclusion, social participation, and transportation.
