

March 2017 Coffee Hour

Join us for a conversation with

Jim Curtin

Seattle Department of Transportation

Thursday, March 16

10:00–11:00 a.m.

The Central Building, 1st Floor Conference Room
810 3rd Avenue

(between Columbia & Marion Streets in downtown Seattle)

Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens Coffee Hours are held on the third Thursday of every month at the Central Building and on other dates in Seattle neighborhoods.

The events bring community elders closer to City officials to explore topics of interest. Presentations often include cutting edge information about healthy aging, legal and planning issues, and more.

Participants learn about City programs and services, and officials hear from their constituents.

Coffee and refreshments are served.

Join us for coffee and meet Jim Curtin, who oversees the planning and implementation of SDOT's Vision Zero Plan—a multifaceted effort to reduce collisions and save lives through street designs that prioritize safety, public education and engagement, and targeted enforcement.

For questions about accessibility or to request an accommodation, contact Rowena Rye (206-684-0500 or seniors@seattle.gov). Requests should be made as soon as possible (at least three days prior to the event).
