May 18, 2017
10:00-11:00 a.m.

The Central Building
1st Floor Conference Room
810 3rd Avenue

(Between Columbia & Marion Streets in downtown Seattle)

Would you like to know more about your rights as a tenant, and what the Tenants Union of Washington State is doing to help you to protect those rights? Amy Tower with the Tenants Union of Washington State will provide an overview of tenants' rights, answer your questions, and discuss your concerns at the May Coffee Hour. Join us on Thursday, May 18th, 10-11am at the Central Building, 810 3rd Avenue in the 1st Floor conference room.

For questions about accessibility or to request an accommodation, contact Rowena Rye (206-684-0500 or seniors@seattle.gov). Requests should be made as soon as possible (at least three days prior to the event).

Mayor's Office for Senior Citizens Coffee Hours are held on the third Thursday of every month at the Central Building and on other dates in Seattle neighborhoods.

The events bring community elders closer to City officials to explore topics of interest. Presentations often include cutting edge information about healthy aging, legal and planning issues, and more.

Participants learn about City programs and services, and officials hear from their constituents.
