

only

of African American/Black students in Seattle Public Schools graduate on time

The Issue

1 in 7 young adults are neither working nor in school

The majority of violent crimes are committed by youth

age 16 - 24

HSD is committed to preparing youth for the future regardless of race, income, immigration status and neighborhood. The department facilitates a combination of direct services to Seattle youth and investments in community organizations working to address health disparities, improve economic achievement, expand employment opportunities and prevent youth violence.

Investment

RE-ENTRY
$981k

DEVELOPMENT AND ACADEMIC SUPPORT

$3.7 M

YOUTH EMPLOYMENT

$4.4 M
VIOLENCE PREVENTION

FAMILY CENTERS AND TEEN PARENT SUPPORT

$1.8 M

$1.5 M

Impact

Cary Carver worked with Career Bridge and now is a member of Ironworkers Local 86, building a stable life for his daughter.

Thanks to Upward Bound, Makayla was able to overcome family challenges and graduate on time from Chief Sealth. She will attend UW in the fall.

Raequan Kea participated in the Summer Youth Employment Program. Thanks to the mentorship of a supervisor at his Summer Swedish Medical job, they worked through a plan that set Raequan up for a successful application and transition to permanent employment at Swedish upon completion of his internship.

