

CUCAC MEMBERS

YVONNE SANCHEZ – EASTLAKE COMMUNITY COUNCIL

Ms. Sanchez' bio can be summarized in three words: family; community; social justice. Values and priorities inherent in these areas prompted her career and volunteer choices and focus, which included a stint in Olympia working for the Assistant Secretary, Children Services, of DSHS; serving as Director of the Seattle Department of Neighborhoods; and, after retiring, volunteering as an Ignatius Volunteer Corp member with the non-profit Casa Cornelia Law Center in San Diego. Ms. Sanchez is committed to contributing the Eastlake neighborhood perspective to the greater community as a member of CUCAC.

DOUG CAMPBELL – UNIVERSITY DISTRICT PARTNERSHIP

Mr. Campbell is the owner of Bulldog News in the University District. After 14 years as a neighborhood resident, Mr. Campbell founded his newsstand and espresso bar on the Ave in 1983. In the years since, he has been involved with the local Chamber and Business Improvement Area organizations. Mr. Campbell is a long standing advocate for well-maintained public spaces, and is committed to facilitating the creation of a central public square in the heart of the University District.

KATHRYN KELLY – LAURELHURST COMMUNITY CLUB

Ms. Kelly, Kay to most who know her, is a member of the Board of the Laurelhurst Community Club (LCC). She is the Project Director of the Fetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders (FASD) Legal Issues Resource Center at the University of Washington's Fetal Alcohol and Drug Unit/Alcohol and Drug Abuse Institute, one of the ten Units of Health Sciences Administration. Her work revolves around training and advocacy on behalf of those living with the brain-based disability (FASD) which can result from prenatal exposure to alcohol.

Ms. Kelly is also an advocate for the development of community engagement, a process in which as many community members as possible join together to implement shared goals, foster community participation and thrive through an enhanced sense of belonging..

TOMITHA BLAKE – MONTLAKE COMMUNITY CLUB

Ms. Blake is a resident of Montlake. Tomitha is active in helping make the neighborhood a vibrant and safe community with a healthy business district.

JOHN GAINES – PORTAGE BAY ROANOKE PARK COMMUNITY COUNCIL (CO-CHAIR)

Mr. Gaines has lived in the Portage Bay / Roanoke Park Neighborhood since 2003 and has served on the neighborhood community council for the past 10 years. He is a local real estate developer focusing on commercial and industrial infill projects in Seattle. His free time is spent exploring the city, mountains, rivers, lakes and ocean with his wife and 3 children.

JOAN KELDAY – RAVENNA SPRINGS COMMUNITY GROUP

Ms. Kelday is a 30-year resident of Ravenna Springs, a member of the Ravenna Springs Community Council and representative on the Northeast District Council and CUCAC. She holds an MSJ degree from Northwestern University and has professional experience in print media, a political campaign and educational program development and management. She is a volunteer guide in the Seattle Japanese Garden with the Arboretum Foundation's Unit 86 and past volunteer with Seattle non-profit organizations.

She is a retiree from the University of Washington and an enthusiastic volunteer abroad with Earthwatch and Global Volunteers.

BRETT FROSAKER – RAVENNA-BRYANT COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION

ERIC LARSON – ROOSEVELT NEIGHBORS ALLIANCE

Mr. Larson has been a member of the Roosevelt Neighbors' Alliance (RNA) since 1990. He is a past-president of RNA and has served on CUCAC for over a decade. He is an Associate Professor in the Department of Family Medicine at UW, dividing his time between the physician assistant training program and rural health research work. He is strongly committed to a livable U-District that balances the needs of diverse groups of neighbors in this unique and vibrant community.

TBD – ROOSEVELT NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION

MATTHEW FOX – UNIVERISTY DISTRICT COMMUNITY CLUB (CO-CHAIR)

Mr. Fox has lived in Seattle for most of his life, and has been hanging around the U-District and Ave since the early 70's when his dad Michael was a manager at the UW Bookstore. He is currently the Director of Operations at the ROOTS Young Adult Shelter, and has a long track record as a political and neighborhood activist and has also managed successful local ballot measure and Seattle City Council electoral campaigns.

Mr. Fox is a longtime musician whose work includes a role as an early cast member on Almost Live's legendary "Lame List", and he still plays local clubs with his current bands Zero Down and Hartwood.

BARBARA QUINN – UNIVERISTY PARK COMMUNITY CLUB

Ms. Quinn has been a resident of the University District for 40 years. She was one of the first board members of CUCAC in the 1980s. Currently, she serves on the board of the University Park Community Club and as board Secretary to the University District Partnership, where she serves as a resident-at-large. Ms. Quinn is passionate about this neighborhood where she has lived for most of her life.

BRIAN O'SULLIVAN – WALLINGFORD COMMUNITY COUNCIL

Mr. O'Sullivan has represented the Wallingford Community Council on CUCAC since 2015 and has been a resident of this neighborhood since for 33 years. Professionally, he worked as an urban and transportation planner for regional agencies in Seattle and a consultant. He is an avid home renovator and cyclist with an interest in local development and mobility impact issues.

KERRY KAHL – U.W. AT LARGE

Mr. Kahl works in Roosevelt Commons East, practically at the center of the U District. He is involved with a variety of projects at the University. A long time Husky - started as a student (lived on campus, then the Ravenna area) and never left. He has been a resident of Fremont for over thirty years, and a lifelong bus rider having never owned a car. As a student, he was involved with the "pedestrian mall on The Ave" project, and continues to be interested in how our neighborhood grows and changes.

TBD – U.W. STUDENT

ASHLEY EMERY – U.W. FACULTY SENATE

Professor of Mechanical Engineering since 1961. Primary interests are Heat Transfer and Building Energy

Served as Associate Dean of Engineering, Chair of Mechanical Engineering, Chair of Faculty Senate, Chair of Senate Budget Committee, Chair of Senate Council on Retirement and Benefits

JAN ARNTZ – U.W. STAFF

Ms. Arntz is the University of Washington staff representative to CUCAC. She is the University's SEPA Responsible Official and Manager of Strategic Initiatives for the Department of Capital Planning and Development. She has been attending CUCAC meetings for over 20 years. Prior to working at the University she has worked for CH2M-Hill, the City of Seattle, and the City of Bellevue. She has been working in the fields of land use, environmental planning and management for over 40 years.

CUCAC ALTERNATES

TIMMY BENDIS – EASTLAKE COMMUNITY COUNCIL (ALTERNATE)

Mr. Bendiš is a recent graduate in political science from the University of Washington. He spent the last three years at school as a member of the student government where he advocated for a wide range of issues, including parks and transit in the University District, on-campus rents for students, pedestrian and bicycle infrastructure, and university police benefits. He has also written papers on student unionization, high speed rail investment, and transit efficiency. He has lived in Eastlake, near Seward School, since December 2015.

LOUISE LITTLE – UNIVERISTY DISTRICIT PARTNERSHIP (ALTERNATE)

Ms. Little is Chief Executive Officer, University Book Store, Inc. Past President (2000, 2013) and Board Member, University District Chamber of Commerce. Past Chair and Current Board Member, U District Partnership.

LESLIE WRIGHT – LAURELHURST COMMUNITY CLUB (ALTERNATE)

Ms. Wright has served as a trustee and newsletter editor for the Laurelhurst Community Club since 2006. She is a founding member of SUN Park, a pocket park created by neighbors to preserve property from development. As a graphic designer and publications and communications manager, she worked for both the University of Washington and Antioch University Seattle.

MIHA SARANI – MONTLAKE COMMUNITY CLUB (ALTERNATE)

BARBARA KRIEGER – PORTAGE BAY ROANOKE PARK COMMUNITY COUNCIL (ALTERNATE)

Barbara has lived in the Portage Bay neighborhood for 42 years. It was a short bike commute to the University of Washington where she was a professor of chemical engineering before she retired. She continues to be interested in the Department and University.

In her retirement she became active in neighborhood issues, representing the Roanoke Park/Portage Bay (RPPB) community council at the Northeast District Council. She also works with the community council on neighborhood safety (block watch), designing and reclaiming underutilized open spaces in our area, traffic calming, parking, and street appeal design, and of course fair zoning and adverse impacts, and sustainability that comes along with increased density.

PAMELA CLARK – RAVENNA SPRINGS COMMUNITY GROUP (ALTERNATE)

Ms. Clark is originally from Michigan, living in Seattle since 2008. She is a technical Communicator/Senior Administrative Assistant and has participated in local politics for years.

JORGEN BADER – RAVENNA-BRYANT COMMUNITY ASSOCIATION (ALTERNATE)

Mr. Bader is Vice-President and member of the Ravenna Bryant Community Association and a long time Seattle resident, now retired

NATASHA RODGERS – ROOSEVELT NEIGHBORS ALLIANCE (ALTERNATE)

Ms. Rodgers is the Graduate Program Systems Lead at University Child Development School (UCDS), where she is a member of committees that facilitate teacher professional development services and outreach initiatives of the school. Natasha has served as a board member of the Roosevelt Neighbors' Alliance since 2009.

Natasha earned her Master of Public Administration at the University of Washington. She is an AmeriCorps VISTA alum, and continues to enjoy volunteering through 501 Commons Service Corps.

TBD – ROOSEVELT NEIGHBORHOOD ASSOCIATION (ALTERNATE)

JORGEN BADER – UNIVERISTY DISTRICT COMMUNITY CLUB (ALTERNATE)

Mr. Bader is Vice-President and member of the Ravenna Bryant Community Association and a long time Seattle resident, now retired

RUEDI RISLER – UNIVERISTY PARK COMMUNITY CLUB (ALTERNATE)

Mr. Risler is the UPCC representative at the North Precinct Advisory Council (NPAC), member of the North of 45th Working Group through the University of Washington, a member of the U-District Partnership (UDP) where he is a member of the Urban Planning Committee. Mr. Risler holds is a Doctor of Science in experimental nuclear physics and a retired research engineer at the University of Washington Medical Center.

JON BERKEDAL – WALLINGFORD COMMUNITY COUNCIL (ALTERNATE)

Mr. Berkedal has lived in Wallingford for more than 30 years. He has been involved with not for profit organizations most of his life and is currently working to expand treatment opportunities for individuals with drug/alcohol and/or mental health issues. Mr. Berkedal is a graduate of several American, European and Near Eastern colleges and universities.

TBD – U.W. AT LARGE (ALTERNATE)

OSMAN SALAHUDDIN – U.W. STUDENT (ALTERNATE)

RICK MOHLER – U.W. FACULTY SENATE (ALTERNATE)

Mr. Mohler, AIA is a Principal of Mohler + Ghillino Architects and Associate Professor of Architecture at the University of Washington where he also serves as the Graduate Program Coordinator. He is a co-chair of the AIA Seattle Public Policy Board, the AIA Seattle Board of Directors, and a Wallingford resident where he is a member of the Wallingford Community Council.

Rick is a former Vice President of the Madrona Community Council and Chair of its Land Use Committee, served a mayoral appointment on the Downtown Project Review Panel for the CAP Initiative and was a founding co-chair of AIA Seattle's Future Shack program that promoted innovative approaches to housing design in the Seattle metropolitan area.

He frequently pursues his interests in urbanism, transportation and housing through UW design studios including a recent studio focused on the mayor's HALA proposal and upcoming studios focused on the public right-of-way and transit oriented development in Redmond.

TBD – U.W. STAFF (ALTERNATE)

SALLY CLARK (EX OFFICIO) – UNIVERSITY OF WASHINGTON

MAUREEN SHEEHAN (EX OFFICIO) – CITY OF SEATTLE DEPARTMENT OF NEIGHBORHOODS