

Celebrated as International Workers' Day, this year's May Day is Monday, May 1. As in past years, we expect and encourage peaceful expressions of free speech.

MAY DAY Permitted Events

Veteran Anti-War Formation – Rally, then March to Judkins Park
9am - 11am, Garden of Remembrance - 200 University St.

Immigrant and Workers' Rights Rally, then March to Seattle Center
11am - 3pm, Judkins Park - 2150 S Norman St.

May 1st Action Coalition Rally at Seattle Center
3pm, Fisher Green Stage at Seattle Center - 305 Harrison St.

FOR RESIDENTS

- Stay alert and be aware of your surroundings.
- Call 911 if you see criminal activity of any kind.
- Report any observed graffiti to:
 - Customer Service Bureau at 206-684-2489
 - Use the Find It, Fix It App on your smart device

FOR BUSINESSES

During the evening hours, bring in any outdoor signs or other business owned objects from the sidewalks.

Close and lock dumpsters and lock to each other or to a building for the day. Secure or empty trash/recycling materials, including any bottles or flammable materials.

FOR EVERYONE

Plan for potential traffic disruptions and larger than normal crowds along march routes.

Share these tips and information with your employees, neighbors, tenants, and friends.

TIPS

Get FREE alerts by text, email, voicemail, and social media.
alert.seattle.gov

For more information, follow #MayDaySEA
Seattle Police Department: @SeattlePD
Seattle Department of Transportation: @SeattleDOT

Report issues to the City with this mobile app.
seattle.gov/finditfixitapp