

Celebrated as International Workers' Day, this year's May Day is Tuesday, May 1. As in past years, we expect and encourage peaceful expressions of free speech.

MAY DAY Events

Immigrant and Workers' Rights rally then march to Downtown Seattle

- 2:30pm - Gather at Judkins Park, 2150 S. Norman St.
- 3:30pm - March to Downtown Seattle / Rally at 2nd Ave & Spring St. (All times subject to change.)

FOR RESIDENTS

- Stay alert and be aware of your surroundings.
- Call 911 if you see criminal activity of any kind.
- Report any observed graffiti to:
 - Customer Service Bureau at 206-684-2489
 - Use the Find It, Fix It App on your smart device

FOR BUSINESSES

During the evening hours, bring in any outdoor signs or other business owned objects from the sidewalks.

Close and lock dumpsters and lock to each other or to a building for the day. Secure or empty trash/recycling materials, including any bottles or flammable materials.

FOR EVERYONE

Plan for potential traffic disruptions and larger than normal crowds along march routes.

Share these tips and information with your employees, neighbors, tenants, and friends.
