Levy Performance Measures

- Missing fewer than five days each semester
- Achieving growth targets on state and district assessments in math and reading
- Making gains on state assessment for English language acquisition
- Meeting grade-level standards on state assessments in math and reading

Levy-Funded Community Partners

- City Year
- Communities in Schools
- Team Read
- YMCA
- Chinese Information and Service Center (CISC)

Levy-Funded Key Strategies

- Before and after school academic interventions provided by certificated staff members targeting focus students and English language learners
- Six City Year corps members and one site coordinator provide academic and social emotional support four days a week before, during, and after school
- Small group tutoring support in conjunction with classroom instruction and under classroom teacher direction provided by City Year for 4th and 5th grade focus students
- Extended day math interventions collaboratively provided by City Year, YMCA, and school staff
- High school student volunteers provide one-on-one tutoring for 2nd and 3rd grade students through the Team Read program
- Teaching and Learning Labs provided thorough partnership with University of Washington to support teacher professional development and the triangulation of English Language and Dual Language learning
- Schoolwide implementation of Social-Emotional Learning Curriculum as part of a comprehensive Positive Behavioral Interventions and Supports (PBIS) system
- Partnership with Chinese Information and Service Center to provide direct support to families; academic focus is on enhancing math opportunities outside of the school day
- Communities in Schools provides case management and wrap around services for focus families; CIS also organizes and leads family engagement activities/events, provides outreach training and coordination of school volunteers, and provides academic intervention tailored to student needs
