

City of Seattle 2013 State Legislative Bulletin

June 3, 2013

Number 17 (Special Session)

This is the last full bulletin of the 2013 session(s.) with updates on all governor bill signings for the regular session. Subsequent bulletins will be abbreviated to cover issues being addressed in the special session.

Areas of Primary Focus

Protecting the most vulnerable families and individuals

House and Senate Budget Proposals

SB 5034: Making 2013-14 Operating Appropriations

Sponsor: Senator Andy Hill

Co-Sponsors: Hargrove

Summary: As this budget proposal passed the Senate (30-18) during the regular session, the bill made a 50% cut to the liquor taxes distributed to local governments, made cuts to housing and homelessness programs and TANF, and permanently redirected significant funding from the Public Works Trust fund.

The House amended this bill with a striker amendment of their budget proposal. This bill, as it passed the House during the regular session (54-43,) includes an assumption of $1.34 billion in new revenue from ending tax exemptions, preserves funding for the Housing and Essential Needs program and TANF, and retains local shared revenues.

Status: At the start of the special session, the bill was referred back to the Senate Rules committee.

HB 2038: Investing in the education legacy trust account for K-12 basic education and higher education by narrowing or eliminating tax preferences and extending taxes set to expire.

Sponsor: Representative Reuven Carlyle

Co-Sponsors: Hunter, Ormsby, Tharinger, Reykdal, Pollet

Summary: This bill eliminates and repeals a number of tax exemptions and extends current taxes to invest in the Education Legacy Trust Fund for K12 basic education and higher education. The amended package includes just under $900 million in new revenue, after taking out the beer tax extension, sales tax to janitorial services, and preferential rates for stevedoring and insurance agents.

Status: HB 2038 passed the House 50 to 47 (with 1 excused.) Because the bill was not considered in the Senate before the end of the regular session, this bill was returned to the House Rules Committee.

Education

HB 1723: Concerning early learning opportunities.

Sponsor: Representative Ruth Kagi

Co-Sponsors: Walsh, Farrell, Maxwell, Roberts, Freeman, Goodman, Sawyer, Sullivan, Jinkins, Seauquist, Lytton, Haigh, Hunter, Morrell, Sells, Ryu, Morris, McCoy, Reykdal, Tarleton, Tharinger, Pollet, Fey, Moscoso, Bergquist, Ormsby, Santos

Summary: HB 1723 addresses funding for home visits to expectant mothers and parents of newborns, increasing subsidies for high quality child care, and expanding preschool education. The final bill requires DEL to make recommendations on the Working Connections Childcare subsidy, state-funded preschool rates, and compensation for providers. The bill also makes the following changes subject to appropriated funding: expanding the state preschool program, increasing the base rate for child care providers by 10% with tiered rates for those meeting certain requirements, and increasing the rate for WCC providers by 5% for those meeting certain standards.

Status: HB 1723 passed out of the House 59-38 (with one excused). HB 1723 passed the Senate 46 to 2 with 1 excused, with amendments. The House refused to concur with the Senate amendments. The Senate receded, and then passed a compromise striking amendment 44 to 3 (2 excused,) which also passed the House 63 to 35, all before the end of the regular session. The bill has been signed by both the Speaker of the House and the President of the Senate and the Governor. The Governor vetoed the section of the bill that would have put a technical workgroup in place, which is similar to another workgroup set in place by other legislation.

City Position: Seattle supports the policy of this legislation.

Transportation, Economic Development, and Infrastructure

Transportation Revenue

HB 1954: Proposes a statewide transportation package.

Sponsor: Representative Judy Clibborn

Co-Sponsors: Moscoso, Fey, Ryu, Riccelli, Farrell, Liias, Pollet, Ormsby, Tarleton, Roberts, Wylie, Morris, Bergquist, Moeller

Summary: This transportation proposal would raise approximately $8.4 billion over the next ten years, primarily through a gas tax, bonding, and other small revenues. The package would primarily fund large state projects with some revenue going to towards maintenance, transit, and local needs. Councilmember Mike O'Brien testified on behalf of the City during the committee hearing on the bill, focusing on the local options piece and importance of transit funding to the region's economic health.

Status: This bill was passed out of the House Transportation Committee and would be considered necessary to implement the budget. It is now in the House Rules Committee.

Local Transportation Options

HB 1959: Concerning local transportation options.

Sponsor: Representative Jessyn Farrell

Co-Sponsors: Fitzgibbon, Kagi, Pedersen, Bergquist, Pollet, Tarleton, Cody, Ryu, Fey

Summary: HB 1959 provides for a 1.5% MVET in King County and councilmanic authority for TBDs to increase vehicle fees from $20 to $40. The legislation would help preserve essential bus service in King County and provide needed resources to repair and maintain local roads and bridges.

Status: HB 1959 is considered necessary to implement the budget. It is currently in the House Rules Committee.

City Position: Seattle supports this legislation.

Transportation Budget

Transportation Budget: SB 5024: Making transportation appropriations for 2011-13 and 2013-15.

Sponsor: Sen. Curtis King

Co-Sponsors: Senators Eide and McAuliffe

Summary: This bare bones transportation budget essentially continues funding for projects already underway.

Status: During the regular session, a final version of the bill passed the House 72-25 (1 excused) and passed the Senate 46-1 (2 excused.) The bill has been signed by the President of the Senate and Speaker of the House, and it was partially vetoed by the Governor. Among the vetoed provisions was the $81 million in funding for the Columbia River Crossing. The bill went into effect on May 20, 2013.

Capital Budget

HB 1089: Adopting the 2013-2015 Capital Budget

Sponsor: Representative Hans Dunshee

Co-Sponsors: Warnick

Summary: The House Capital Budget as it passed the committee includes funding for many excellent projects that Seattle supports. Work continues on a number of key issues including the Housing Trust Fund, MTCA, and investments in energy efficiency, among others.

Status: This bill passed the House Capital Budget Committee during the regular session, and with the start of the special session, it is in the House Rules Committee.

Companion Bill: SB 5035

Sponsor: Senator Jim Honeyford

Co-Sponsors: Nelson, Shin

Status: This budget bill passed out of the Senate Ways and Means Committee during the regular session.

SB 5445: Funding School Capital Projects

Sponsors: Senators Honeyford, Schoesler, Dammeier, Braun, Parlette, Litzow, Baumgartner, Carrell, Sheldon, Ericksen, Becker, King, Fain, Bailey, Tom.

Summary: Authorizes the state finance committee to issue $475 million in general obligation bonds to finance public school projects.

Status: This bill passed the Senate 47 to 0, and it was heard in the House Capital Budget committee during the regular session. With the start of the special session, it has been returned to the Senate Rules Committee.

Public Safety

HB 1045: Authorizing certain local authorities to establish maximum speed limits on certain non-arterial highways.

Sponsor: Representative Cindy Ryu

Co-Sponsors: Angel, Moscoso, Clibborn, Upthegrove, Fitzgibbon, Lias, Pedersen, Stanford, Farrell, Morrell, Pollet, Bergquist, Fey

Summary: HB 1045 would allow cities to lower the speed limits on certain streets to 20 MPH.

Status: HB 1045 passed the House on a vote of 86 to 10 (with 2 excused). HB 1045 passed the Senate 45 to 2, with 2 excused. The bill has been signed by the Speaker of the House, President of the Senate, and the Governor, and it goes into effect on July 28, 2013.

City Position: Seattle supports this legislation.

DUI Enforcement

HB 2030: Modifying provisions that address impaired driving.

Sponsor: Representative Dawn Morrell

Co-Sponsors: Klippert, Goodman, Short, Van de Wege, Warnick, Bergquist, Harris, Hansen, Zeiger, Tharinger, Hurst, Dahlquist, Fitzgibbon, Kochmar, Fey, Hope, Kirby, O'Ban, Sequist, Haler, Habib, Hargrove, Sells, Smith, Stanford, Sullivan, Maxwell, McCoy, Springer, Hunt, Lias, Stonier, Pollet, Ryu, Farrell, Orwall, Moscoso, Upthegrove

Summary: This Governor request legislation includes a variety of measures to address the problem of those driving under the influence, including provisions related to ignition interlock devices, increased jail sentences, making the fourth offense a felony, and monitoring and treatment options. It also includes the provisions of HB 1482, considered earlier in the session. (See below.) This legislation would increase jail and prosecution costs to local governments and legislators are considering funding options.

Status: HB 2030 was passed out of the House Public Safety Committee on May 22nd and has been referred to Appropriations.

Companion Bill: SB 5912

Sponsor: Senator Mike Padden

Co-Sponsors: Kline, Conway

Summary: As it passed out of committee, SB 5912 would add 10 days in jail to all minimum sentences for DUI, make drunken driving a felony on the fourth conviction instead of the fifth, require repeat DUI offenders to get an ignition-interlock devices to be installed before they are released from jail after an arrest, and add a $100 penalty for DUI for a state fund for traffic safety programs.

Status: SB 5912 was passed out of the Senate Ways and Means committee on May 31st.

HB 1482: Modifying provisions that address impaired driving.

Sponsor: Representative Roger Goodman

Co-Sponsors: Habib, Kirby, Orwall, Hurst, Moscoso, Takko, Seaquist, Bergquist, Ryu, Fey, Appleton, McCoy, Green, Pollet, Lias, Stonier.

Summary: HB 1482 would reform our current DUI provisions and strengthen accountability measures for first time and repeat offenders. Among other provisions, the bill strengthens state requirements regarding ignition interlock devices and amends the definition of a prior offense to acknowledge plea bargains.

Status: HB 1482 is in the House Rules committee.

City Position: Seattle supports this legislation.

Human Trafficking

SB 5488: Establishing an enhanced penalty for the use of an internet advertisement to facilitate the commission of a sex-trafficking crime.

Sponsor: Senator Jeanne Kohl-Welles

Co-Sponsors: Padden, Kline, Darneille, Fraser, Ranker, Keiser, Delvin, Carrell, McAuliffe, Chase, Conway

Summary: SB 5488 requires an additional fee of five thousand dollars per offense to be assessed on a person convicted of commercial sexual abuse of a minor, promoting commercial sexual abuse of a minor, or promoting travel for commercial sexual abuse of a minor, when the court finds that an internet advertisement in which the victim of the crime was described or depicted was instrumental in facilitating the commission of the crime. Assistant Chief Dick Reed and Detective Todd Novidsedlak from SPD both testified on this bill in the Senate and House hearings.

Status: SB 5488 passed out of the Senate in a 49-0 vote. The bill passed the House 97 to 0, with one excused. The bill has been signed by the President of the Senate, the Speaker, and the Governor, and it will be effective July 28, 2013.

City Position: Seattle supports this legislation.

SB 5308: Establishing the commercially sexually exploited children statewide coordinating committee.

Sponsor: Senator Jeanne Kohl-Welles

Co-Sponsors: Carrell, Darneille, Padden, Kline, Hargrove, Fraser, Chase, Keiser, Conway, Cleveland, Tom

Summary: SB 5308 will establish a committee to work on this issue.

Status: The bill passed the Senate 49 to 0, and it passed the House 97 to 0, with 1 excused. The Senate concurred with the House amendments. The bill has been signed by the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House and the Governor, and it will go into effect July 28, 2013.

SB 5563: Regarding training for school employees in the prevention of sexual abuse.

Sponsor: Senator Jeanne Kohl-Welles

Co-Sponsors: Litzow, Rolfes, Keiser, McAuliffe, Kline

Summary: SB 5563 requires the office of the superintendent of public instruction to develop and implement a training program for school employees regarding prevention of sexual abuse, commercial sexual abuse of a minor and sexual exploitation of a minor.

Status: SB 5563 passed out of the chamber in a 49-0 vote. The bill also passed out of the House Chamber in a 97-0, one excused. The bill has been signed by the President of the Senate, the Speaker and the Governor, and it will go into effect on July 28, 2013.

HB 1291: Concerning Services for Victims of the Sex Trade.

Sponsor: Representative Tina Orwall

Co-Sponsors: Kochmar, Hope, Parker, Goodman, Jenkins, Uptegrove, Ryu, Stanford, Roberts, Hurst, Morrell, Tarleton, Wylie, Bergquist, Ormsby

Summary: HB 1291 directs current offender fees towards services for victims.

Status: HB 1291 passed the House 97 to 0, with 1 excused. The bill passed the Senate 47 to 0, with 2 excused, and the House concurred with the Senate amendments. The bill has been signed by the Speaker of House, the President of the Senate, and the Governor, and it will go into effect on July 28, 2013.

City Fiscal Health

HB 1368: Concerning the distribution of state liquor revenues to cities and counties.

Sponsor: Representative Steve Tharinger

Co-Sponsors: Springer, Orcutt, Ryu, Fey, Zeiger, Moscoso, Kochmar, Magendanz, Hayes, Sells, Hargrove, Morrell, Freeman

Summary: HB 1368 would restore the growth in liquor revenues to cities and counties.

Status: This bill is currently in the House Appropriations Committee. This bill could be considered necessary to implement the budget.

Companion Bill: SB 5703

Sponsor: Senator Steve Hobbs

Status: SB 5703 has been referred to Senate Ways & Means. This issue could be considered necessary to implement the budget.

City Position: Seattle supports this legislation.

Local Revenue Authority

SB 5688: Simplifying definitions and classifications concerning state and local tax systems.

Sponsor: Senator John Braun

Co-Sponsors: Carrell, Dammeier, Rivers, Sheldon, Hobbs

Summary: SB 5688 was amended on the Senate floor and turned into a study bill. It would have representatives from cities, the business community and DOR meet through the interim to discuss and make recommendations regarding state and local B&O tax uniformity, business classifications, apportionment, and nexus. DOR would submit a report detailing recommendations in December.

Status: SB 5688 was voted out of the Senate in a 35-14 vote, but it was returned to the Senate Rules Committee at the end of the regular session. Senate leadership has indicated that this bill remains a priority.

City Position: Seattle opposes this legislation.

SB 5656: Revising Business Licensing Systems.

Sponsor: Senator John Braun

Co-Sponsors: Carrell, Rivers, Sheldon, Hobbs, Fain

Summary: SB 5656 was amended on the Senate floor to require cities to join either the state's business licensing system or the five-cities-portal system then was subsequently amended in the House Local Government Committee. The new version delays the deadline for when cities must join either system and to provide cities and DOR with off-ramps from the requirements.

Status: SB 5656 passed the Senate in a 33-16 vote. The bill did not pass out of the House committee, and at the end of the regular session, it was returned to the Senate Rules Committee. The Senate has included the bill as part of their budget.

City Position: Seattle opposes this legislation.

Other Issues of Significant Interest

Disabled Parking Placards

HB 1946: Concerning Special Parking Privileges for Persons with Disabilities.

Sponsor: Representative Sam Hunt

Co-Sponsor: Reykdal

Summary: HB 1946 would help reduce disabled parking placard abuse by improving enforcement of illegal use of placards and by establishing a work group that will develop recommendations for other ways to curtail abuse.

Status: HB 1946 passed the House 98-0. The bill was voted out of the Senate Transportation Committee on March 21st, but unfortunately the bill was not voted on in the Senate before the cutoff for policy bills and is officially dead for this session. However, the final transportation budget included the work group language from the bill. The work group will develop a strategic plan to reduce the abuse of disabled parking placards and make recommendations on legislation for next session.

City Position: Seattle supports this legislation.

Towing

HB 1625: Concerning limitations on certain tow truck operator rates.

Sponsor: Representative Gerry Pollet

Co-Sponsors: Clibborn, Kagi, Pedersen, Hunt, Ricelli, Appleton, Hudgins, Moscoso, Fitzgibbon, Morrell, Sells, Bergquist

Summary: The bill would establish statewide maximum rates on private impound tows. The bill was amended on the floor to clarify that Seattle would retain the ability to set rates and related charges should the City prevail in pending litigation.

Status: HB 1625 passed the House 91-7. The bill passed the Senate unamended 47 to 0, with 2 excused. The bill has been signed by the Speaker, the President of the Senate, and the Governor, and it goes into effect on July 28, 2013.

Position: Seattle supports this legislation.

Energy Efficiency

E2SSB 5802: Developing recommendations to achieve the state's greenhouse gas emissions targets.

Sponsor: Senator Kevin Ranker

Co-Sponsors: Litzow, Frockt, Cleveland, Billig, Kohl-Welles, Murray, McAuliffe

Summary: This legislation was requested by Governor Inslee, and it creates the Climate Legislative and Executive Work Group and commissions a report to evaluate approaches to reduce greenhouse gas emissions.

Status: 5802 passed out of the House and Senate Chambers with the Speaker and President signing off, respectively. The bill was signed into law by Governor Inslee on April 2nd, effective immediately.

Reducing Toxins

HB 1294: Concerning Flame Retardants.

Sponsor: Representative Kevin Van de Wege

Co-Sponsors: Hudgins, Pollet, Maxwell, Hunt, Upthegrove, Tharinger, Fey, Farrell, Moscoso, Hunter, Stanford, Reykdal, Fitzgibbon, Bergquist, Tarleton, Goodman, Kagi, Hansen, Jinkins, Habib, Pedersen, Ryu, Liias, Riccelli, Roberts, Morrell, Clibborn, Ormsby

Summary: This bill will ban the manufacture, sale, and distribution of children's products with high levels of TDCPP or TCEP flame retardant chemicals. Amendments in the Senate restricted the bill to these currently known chemicals.

Status: HB 1294 passed out of the House in a 53-44 vote, with 1 excused. On April 17th, the bill passed the Senate 30 to 18, with 1 excused. However, the House refused to concur on the Senate amendments and asked for a conference committee, to which the Senate did not agree. Because an identical bill was not passed by both houses before the end of the regular session, the bill has been returned to the House Rules Committee for the special session.

City Position: Seattle supports this legislation.

SB 5933: Concerning Flame Retardants.

Sponsor: Senator Sharon Nelson

Co-Sponsors: Senator Kohl-Welles

Summary: See above.

Status: This bill was introduced on May 13th and has been referred to the Senate Energy, Environment, and Telecommunications Committee.

Sick Leave

SB 5726: Placing geographic limitations on local paid sick leave and paid safe leave programs.

Sponsor: Senator John Braun

Co-Sponsors: Tom, Bailey, Schoesler, Padden, Benton

Summary: SB 5726 would place limits on Seattle's current law.

Status: SB 5726 passed out of the Senate in a 29-20 vote, with some amendments. Because it was not considered in the House prior to the end of the regular session, it has been returned to the Senate Rules Committee. The bill is officially dead for this session.

City Position: Seattle opposes this legislation.

Public Works Contracting

HB 1466: Revising Alternative Public Works Contracting Procedures.

Sponsor: Representative Kathy Haigh

Co-Sponsors: Warnick, Dunshee, Fey, Kristiansen, Reykdal

Summary: HB 1466 reauthorizes the alternative public works contracts and makes other changes recommended by the Capital Projects Advisory Review Board (CPARB).

Status: HB 1466 passed the House unanimously, with 3 excused. The bill passed the Senate in an amended form 47-0 on April 16th. The House concurred with the Senate amendments, and the bill has been signed by the Speaker of the House, the President of the Senate, and the Governor. The bill is effective June 30, 2013.

Infrastructure

SB 5378: Creating a six-year time frame for substantial building code amendments.

Sponsors: Benton, Schoesler, Bailey, Carrell, Becker, Holmquist Newbry, Sheldon, Ericksen, Dammeier

Summary: 5378 extends the time requirements so that substantial revisions to the building codes occur every six years instead of every 3 years.

Status: SB 5378 passed out of the Senate in a 33-14 vote. The bill had a public hearing in the House Local Government Committee on March 19th, where a member of Seattle's Department of Planning and Development spoke. The bill was not considered for a vote and was returned to the Senate Rules Committee at the end of the regular session. The bill is officially dead this session.

City Position: Seattle opposes this legislation.

Extended Foster Care Services

SB 5405: Concerning Extended Foster Care Services.

Sponsor: Senator Ed Murray

Co-Sponsors: Tom, Kohl-Welles, Darneille, Hobbs, Harper, Frockt

Summary: SB 5405 helps young people aging out of the foster care system who still face numerous and serious challenges by allowing them to choose to extend foster care services until they are 21 years old.

Status: SB 5405 passed out of the Senate Chamber unanimously with 1 excused. The bill passed the House 80 to 16, with 2 excused. The Senate concurred with the House amendments, and the bill has been signed by the Speaker of the House, the President of the Senate and the Governor. The bill is effective July 28, 2013.

City Position: Seattle supports this legislation.

Tenant Screening

SB 5568: Concerning the disclosure of certain information when screening tenants.

Sponsor: Senator Steve Hobbs

Co-Sponsors: Kohl-Welles, Billig, Frockt, Chase, Harper, Hasegawa, Keiser, Shin, Kline, Nelson

Summary: This bill continues work that has been done previously on tenant screening to ensure that screening service providers may not disclose an applicant's status as a victim of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking as part of the screening process.

Status: SB 5568 passed the Senate 46 to 3. The bill passed the House 94 to 0, with 4 excused. The bill has been signed by the President of the Senate, the Speaker of the House, and the Governor, and it is effective January 1, 2014.

City Position: Seattle supports this legislation.

Looking Ahead

The special session is scheduled to last until June 11th. The next revenue and caseload forecasts are scheduled for June 18th, and the state fiscal year ends on June 30th.
