

2020 CAL ANDERSON PARK

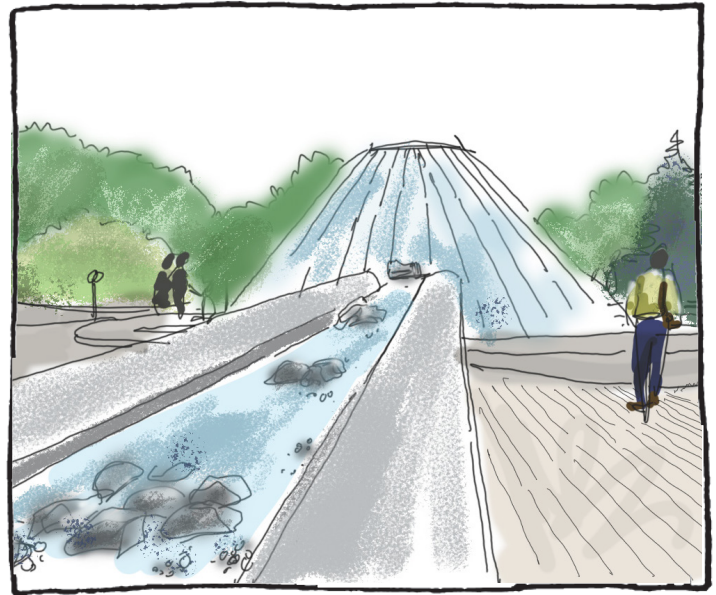

A COMMUNITY CONVERSATION + VISION

2020 Cal Anderson Park is a project of Seattle Parks & Recreation to engage the public on how changing assumptions and language can affect the design of park spaces and create a sense of belonging for everyone.

YOU'RE INVITED

Join the first of three on-line discussions about the future of Cal Anderson Park and help create a place for everyone.

Additional opportunities to support the 2020 Cal Anderson Park conversation include surveys, interviews, and additional public meetings in September and October.
