

Public Open House 6/25/16
COMMENT SUMMARY	TIMES REPEATED
PLANT COMMENTS
No Grass, weeds	I
Lawn to lay down on, pleasure for adults, not secluded, not for dogs	IIII
Pea patch uses to potentially activate space
Bee polinator and drought resistant plant examples	II
Educate people regarding plant choices for their yards
Hate to say this but no grass or bark because people will turn it into a dog potty. No dogs	I
Native plants
Trees	I
GROUND COMMENTS
Surface Games - Labyrinth on the ground, hopscotch	I
Lighted sidewalk like Van Gogh Starry Night bike walking path in Netherlands. Light installations are amazing!!
Pass through for wheelchairs, universal access	I
Zen feel
Accommodate dogs
PLAYGROUND COMMENTS
Playground. So many young families in this neighborhood. Lots of kids at library. Monkey bars, rope swings	III
Include senior playground. Want multigenerational. Go to this site to learn more about the idea - active participation for seniors works for all ages. Easy play. Ping Pong. Parkchelseanews.blogspot.com/2012/07/senior-playgrounds.html	IIII
Water spouting feature instead of play structure, bubbling up from under, subtle, when water is not there it still works	II
There are nearby playgrounds already, don't make whole park a playground	I
Kid area and adult area
Stools of etched concrete in a book theme. Community members can decorate/paint
Skateboard park
BATHROOM COMMENTS
Too hard to maintain bathrooms
Bathroom and water	I
Use library's restrooms
SEATING COMMENTS
Hammocks are a potential concern
Seating (diverse, year round, shade umbrellas, benches)	IIIIIII
Table is too heavy. More modern, (but not too)
SAFETY COMMENTS
Homeless, drug sensitive area / balance. Security at night. What is the city going to do differently than they currently are to keep the park vacant at night.	IIIIII
Barrier between street and park	II
Keep it open to keep it safe	I
Close 81st & Greenwood. Traffic is worsening and pedestrians will be unsafe.	III
Security cameras	I
PARKING COMMENTS
No off street parking
FEATURES TO ADD COMMENTS
A couple of spots for food trucks	I
Little amphitheater	I
Music in the park	II
Storytelling - Bring library to park	III
Do Art	II
