

The Shape of Trust

OUR VISION is to understand, practice and move toward embodying the ways of being, interacting and decision-making that promote and maintain a racially equitable workplace.

The Shape of Trust is a project of the Creative Strategies Initiative.

It is a partnership between the Office of Arts & Culture, Office for Civil Rights, and Department of Human Resources with sponsorship from The Workforce Equity Planning and Advisory Committee. Contributing partners include Seattle Public Utilities, Seattle City Light, Seattle Center, Department of Neighborhoods, Office of Immigrant and Refugee Affairs, Seattle Public Library and Seattle Department of Construction and Inspections.

Stories and Experiences from City employees most impacted by racism and its intersections with other forms of oppression

Script ▶ Rehearsals ▶ Staged Reading ▶

Performances with Talkbacks

June 2019 at: ACT Theatre, Benaroya Hall, Langston Hughes Performing Arts Institute

Video of the Performance

Curriculum

Arts and mindfulness integrated, understanding racial equity as a practice

Trainings and Tools for Learning and Change

HR and RSJI training modules

Training of facilitator cohorts

Community of Practice cohorts

Streaming video and activity guide