

Georgetown to South Park Connection Project (GTSP Connection)

GTSP Connection Project Scope

- New shared use path connecting the Georgetown and South Park communities.
- Provides an “all ages and abilities” bicycle and pedestrian connection between the Duwamish Valley neighborhoods where currently none exist.

Above: Georgetown festival street
Right: traveling to Georgetown from South park

Where is Design?

- 90% Design milestone - October 2021
- Fully funded
- Construction - August 2022

90% Design updates

- Lights

- Pedestrian Scale Lighting

- Trees

- Athena
- American Hornbeam
- Amur Maackia
- Emerald Sunshine

- 1% Art

- Discussing art opportunities.
- connecting to artwork on S hardy Str through the King County Airport.

Location

- S Albright Pl (13th Ave S to Ellis Ave S)
- Ellis Ave S (Albrow to Myrtle)
- S Myrtle St (Ellis to Flume property)
- E Marginal way S (Myrtle to 16th Ave S)
- 16th Ave S (E Marginal way to bridge)

