

Join us for the grand opening of Pine Street Plaza

Join us as we unveil a newly renovated public space in the heart of downtown – Pine Street Plaza!

Located on Pine Street between Third and Fourth avenues, and across from the Westlake Tunnel Station, this space is now a mosaic of blue and yellow, complete with bistro seating, food trucks, games, daily staffing and Seattle-style art.

This reimagined public space is a collaboration between DSA and the Seattle Department of Transportation. It's part of SDOT's Pavement to Parks program and DSA's ongoing efforts to make more public spaces available and welcoming for everyone.

On Jan. 8, we'll "open" this space to the public and celebrate with refreshments, live music and more.

Please join us, and don't forget your camera. You'll want to snap a photo at the area's new art installation. Faces of Seattle is a colorful and fun mural that depicts famous Seattle attractions with peek-through spaces for faces.

We hope to see you there.
