

Beyond the Cart

Where it Goes When it Doesn't Go in the Carts

Special Item Pick Up

Schedule a pickup at your home (fees apply)

Seattle.gov/SpecialItems or
(206) 684-3000

Bill payer or landlord must schedule

Large Furniture: couches, tables, and mattresses

Appliances: Refrigerators, freezers, washers, and dryers

Electronics:

TVs, Computers, and tablets

Batteries &

Florescent light bulbs

Foam block (free)

Used Motor & Cooking Oil:

- Set out with Recycle cart for collection (free)
- No scheduled pick up needed
- Put cooking and motor oil in separate 1-gallon plastic containers labeled with your address
- Set out up to 2 gallons per collection day

SPU SOLID WASTE FACILITIES

Transfer Stations

Hours & Information:

Seattle.gov/TransferStations or (206) 684-8400

North Transfer Station

1350 N. 34th Street Seattle, WA 98103

South Transfer Station

130 S. Kenyon Street Seattle, WA 98108

DROP OFF OPTIONS

Batteries & Cell Phones

FOR RECYCLING:

Locations at Call2Recycle.org & HazWasteHelp.org (free)

Rechargeable and lithium batteries, and cell phones accepted

Alkaline batteries: HazWasteHelp.org or in the garbage

Furniture & Household goods

FOR DONATION & REUSE:

Thrift stores, BuyNothingGroups, Craigslist

FOR DISPOSAL:

SPU Transfer Stations (fees apply)

Mattresses

FOR DISPOSAL:

SPU Transfer Stations (fees apply)

Clothes & Textiles

For Donation, Reuse or Recycling at Thrift stores, Drop boxes, or Collection trucks (free)

Damaged items accepted at participating thrift stores
KingCounty.gov/ThreadCycle

Household Hazardous Waste

HHW (free) HazWasteHelp.org

Drop off Pesticides, chemicals, oil-based paint, and anything marked "CAUTION", "WARNING", "DANGER" or "POISON"

North HHW Facility

12550 Stone Ave N. Seattle, WA 98133

South HHW Facility

8150 Fifth Ave S. Seattle, WA 98108

Electronics

FOR RECYCLING & REUSE: EcycleWashington.org

TVs, computers, monitors, and other electronics accepted (free)

Florescent Lightbulbs

FOR RECYCLING: LightRecycle.org (free)

Unbroken tubes, compact florescent (CFLs), and mercury bulbs accepted

Incandescent and LED bulbs go in the garbage

Medicines

FOR SAFE DISPOSAL: MedicineReturn.org (free)

DO NOT flush in the toilet or put in the garbage

Syringes

FOR SAFE DISPOSAL:

seattle.gov/util/sharp (free)

Store syringes in a hard plastic bottle or container

For interpretation services please call (206) 684-7587

如需要口譯服務，請撥電話號碼 (206) 684-7587

Wixii turjubaan afka ah ku saabsan, Fadlan la soo xariir taleefoonka: (206) 684-7587

Para servicios de interpretación por favor llame al (206) 684-7587

Para sa serbisyo ng tagapagpaliwanag, tumawag sa (206) 684-7587

Về dịch vụ phiên dịch xin gọi (206) 684-7587

Where Does it Go?

How to sort your Compost, Recycling, & Garbage

Seattle.gov/utilities/wheredoesitgo
(206) 684-3000

Seattle Public Utilities

Food & Compost

All Food Waste

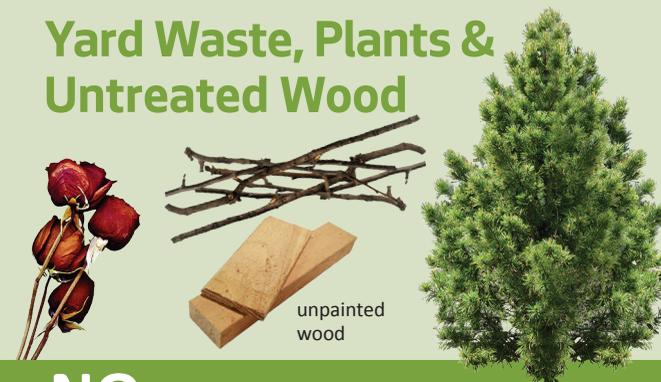

Food Soiled Paper

Approved Compostable Items

Yard Waste, Plants & Untreated Wood

NO PLASTIC, METAL, AND GLASS

Recycle

MUST BE EMPTY, CLEAN, AND DRY

Plastic Containers, Bottles & Tubs

Other Plastics

Loose lids must be 3 inches or wider.

Paper

Cardboard

Glass Bottles & Jars

Metal

scrap metal

NO FOOD, LIQUID, AND PLASTIC BAGS

Garbage

Non-Recyclable Plastic & Paper

Foam

Recycle blocks with Special Item Pick Up.

Kitchen Grease

Can it, cool it, trash it.

Non-Recyclable Materials

NO FOOD & YARD WASTE, RECYCLABLES, AND HAZARDOUS WASTE

Reuse

Choose Reusable & Bring your Own

reusable utensils

portable to-go containers

reusable bags

coffee mugs and water bottles

Repurpose

REUSE WHAT YOU HAVE & USE FEWER DISPOSABLE ITEMS

When in Doubt, Find Out: seattle.gov/utilities/wheredoesitgo or (206) 684-3000

@SeattleSPU
@SeattlePublicUtilities

