

HAVE YOU RALLIED TO PROTECT IMMIGRANTS, DEFEND HOMELESS NEIGHBORS, OR DEMAND EQUALITY FOR COMMUNITIES OF COLOR?

IF SO, THE SEATTLE HUMAN RIGHTS COMMISSION NEEDS YOU!

The Seattle Human Rights Commission advocates for justice and equal opportunity, advises the City of Seattle on human rights issues, and collaborates with public and private entities to educate the city on ways to prevent and eliminate discrimination city-wide.

Commissioners:

- Serve 2 year terms
- Work on task forces, such as Immigration, Housing & Homelessness, and Race & Gender Equity
- coordinate with Seattle Office for Civil Rights to monitor issues

We are currently recruiting!

Women, People of color, and others from marginalized or other often under-represented communities are strongly encouraged to apply.

Visit <https://www.seattle.gov/humanrights> for information to apply.

Contact Marta Idowu for more information at marta.idowu@seattle.gov.

