We hope you are enjoying your Xfinity services.

I am writing to tell you about some upcoming changes to your Xfinity services pricing. We understand you may have questions regarding changes to your bill, so I'd like to explain why they happen and to let you know how we're improving the value of your services and experiences with us.

Programming fees—the fees networks and broadcast stations charge us to deliver programming—continue to rise. These are among our biggest expenses, along with the cost of improving our products and services, enhancing our network, and investing in technology.

Additionally, there will be some changes to the “Other Charges, Service Fees, and Taxes” section of your bill to reflect current tax rates and tax adjustments.

If you are currently receiving services on a promotional basis or under a minimum term agreement associated with a specific rate, the prices for those specific services will not be affected during the applicable period. However, equipment charges, taxes and fees, including the Broadcast TV Fee and Regional Sports Network Fee, are subject to change here and could affect the overall amount you pay during the applicable period. When the promotional period or minimum term agreement ends, your price will reflect our new package prices.

More details on these price and fee changes are enclosed. For additional information, go to xfinity.com/pricechange.

Please know we absorb many of these costs, but some must be passed through to customers. While some fees may be going up, we hope you see your services improving as well. From our products to our people, we're committed to delivering experiences you'll love.

Thank you for being an Xfinity customer.

Sincerely,

Amy Lynch
