

SEATTLE WOMEN’S COMMISSION

WEEKLY REPORT FOR: APRIL 30 - MAY 7, 2014

All Committees: Violence Prevention, Housing and Homelessness, Economic Opportunities and Health Disparities

Work Plan items (Status of work plan items, what is completed, issues & updates)	Events/Forums (events or forums planned and any collaboration with community or other Commissions)	Meetings (any meetings with the community, media relations, department heads, City Council Members/staff or Mayor/staff)	Policy Issues (any policy items you are working on)	Emerging issues (anything we need to know or be aware of that is not in the report)	Other Items (Things you want the Mayor to be aware of looking forward to future issues)
HEALTH DISPARITIES SUB-CMTE
					Susana and Mercedes are meeting with Councilmember Bagshaw on 5/8
					Michele and Mercedes are continuing to work on updating the SWC bylaws
feel free to add more rows if you need to
VIOLENCE PREVENTION SUB-CMTE
	Maha attended the May 1 st rally in Seattle.
feel free to add more	Maha attended and

rows if you need to	gave a talk at the Cinco De Mayo Community Meeting that was hosted by Rep. Freeman in Federal Way.
HOUSING AND HOMELESSNESS
feel free to add more rows if you need to	On May 6 Alison met with members of the LGBT, Human Rights, and Immigrant & Refugee Commissions to discuss areas where we might be able to collaborate on housing and homelessness issues.	Nicki attended the City's Housing and Human Services Budget Workshop on May 6.		Commissioners have scheduled a meeting with CM Harrell on 5/14 to discuss increasing access to housing for women with criminal records.
	Morgan reached out to the Tenants Union about presenting at the May Commission meeting on the Fair Tenant Screening Act.
	Morgan attended the opening night film screening for the Hack to End Homelessness on May 2.
	Liz served as a volunteer at the Hack to End Homelessness, and presented her findings from the event to the members of the Housing & Homelessness Committee.

	Liz attended the final presentations for Hack to End Homelessness and reported back to the Housing and Homelessness Subcommittee.
ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITIES
		Liz and Lili are meeting with Lauren Othon from SOCR to discuss integrating the RSJI with the implementation of the gender wage gap task force recommendations.
feel free to add more rows if you need to		Wendy worked with Monica and Lauren from the Jeannette Williams award
		Wendy is meeting with city employee to discuss RSJI, and concern about racial disparity in pay and budget application

		Wendy attended CM Licata's budget meeting
OTHER

