SEATTLE YOUTH COMMISSION

Seattle Youth Commission 2016-17 Application

The Seattle Youth Commission is a group of Seattleites aged 13-19 from all over the city that work with local government to address issues that are important to youth.

What We Do

- Discuss issues and solutions with other Seattle youth and develop projects that address those concerns
- Advise the Mayor, City Council and City departments on issues that impact youth in Seattle
- Plan an annual event that connects youth to local government and topics they care about

Time Commitment

Youth Commissioners serve a two-year term and are expected to the half-day retreat, attend SYC meetings, and other SYC-planned events. Meetings will be held on the 1st and 3rd Wednesdays from 4-6pm @ Seattle City Hall.
