

FROM PAST TO FUTURE: The AYP Legacy on Campus

Wednesday, December 2, 2009     Gould Hall Court, NE 40th St. & University Way, Seattle

As the year-long celebration of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition centennial draws to an end, you are invited to attend a discussion about the future of the Olmsted and AYP legacy on the UW campus. The Forum will be preceded by background presentations. Please join us.

BACKGROUND PRESENTATIONS

4:30 pm

Olmsted and the Evolution of the UW Campus – Presented by Brooks Kolb, ASLA, FSOP
AYP Past and Present Photo Project – Presented by John Stamets, UW Arch Lecturer

RECEPTION with Display of AYP Past and Present photo panels

5:30 pm

FORUM PRESENTATION AND PANEL

6:00 pm

Landscape Heritage – UW and Inspiration from Other Campuses

AYP Legacy on Campus – Brooks Kolb, ASLA, President of Friends of Seattle's Olmsted Parks
 Inspiration from University of California at Berkeley and Mills College – Robert Sabbatini
 Inspiration from Washington State Capitol Campus – Susan Olmsted

Panel Discussion – The Future of Historic Landscape Heritage at UW Campus

6:40 pm

Kristine Kenney – UW Landscape Architect
 Jeffrey Ochsner – UW Department of Architecture - Professor
 Susan Olmsted – ASLA, Mithun - Associate
 Robert Sabbatini – AICP FASLA, Planner and Designer
 John Stamets – UW Department of Architecture - Lecturer
 Thaisa Way – UW Department of Landscape Arch. – Assistant Professor (Panel Moderator)

Questions

7:30 pm

This program is FREE and open to the public and is made possible in part by a grant from Humanities Washington and support from UW College of Built Environments and Friends of Seattle's Olmsted Parks.

www.seattleolmsted.org