

Comments received via <http://www.seattle.gov/municipaljail/questions.htm>
for August 9, 2008

Name: Newman Dalton

City: Seattle

Neighborhood: Greenwood/Phinney Ridge

My wife and I just bought a condo and are also thinking about kids. We don't want a jail near our neighborhood. Housing prices will drop in the middle of a bad market. The law abiding citizens of Seattle deserve to live in nice locations that are central to the places they need to go. Inmates don't need location as they really are gonna be traveling much. An industrial area would be fine but not a neighborhood. That is just plain wrong. The city needs to take the responsibility of putting the jail where it will not inconvenience the people and effect their property value.