

Seattle Japanese Garden Audio Tour Content including English and Japanese Versions

This Audio Tour was made possible through an Associated Recreation Council Opportunity Fund grant, along with the generous donation of recording studio time and student expertise from the Art Institute of Seattle's Audio Program.

It is our hope that this project will serve to enhance the public's understanding of the inherent cultural richness of the landscape at the Seattle Japanese Garden, and the inspiration it provides to those who come and share their cultural knowledge on site.

We encourage you to download this content in the hope that it will serve the interests and needs of students of Japanese language and culture. The content is arranged in as follows:
