SEATTLE DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION
Interurban Trail from N 109th Street to N 128th Street

Description of Proposal: The City of Seattle proposes to construct a segment of the regional Interurban Trail in the City Light right-of-way that is aligned along what would be Linden Avenue between N 109 Street to N 128th Street roughly following an existing dirt footpath. The total length of the trail is 5,110 ft. A marked crosswalk will be installed at N 125th Street to facilitate street crossing. Minimal landscaping is proposed limited to main access points at 110th and 128th Streets and possible landscaping screening if it is requested by adjacent property owner. Most likely, the cross section of the trail will include a 12-ft paved lane, and 2-ft gravel shoulders on both sides of the trail.
