JOINT ATHLETIC FACILITIES DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

PUBLIC MEETINGS

Seattle Parks and Recreation is hosting three public meetings to share information and gather public input from citizens on the draft 2001-2002 update of the Joint Athletic Facilities Development Program (JAFDP). The purpose of the JAFDP is to increase the number of high-quality, safe, Parks and School District athletic facilities available to youth and adults throughout the city. The meetings will be open house format with a brief overview.

Monday, September 10

Bitter Lake Community Center, 6:30-8:30 PM
13035 Linden Avenue N.

Wednesday, September 12

Miller Community Center, 6:30-8:30 PM
330 - 19th Avenue E.

Thursday, September 20

Jefferson Community Center, 6:30-8:30 PM
3801 Beacon Avenue S.

The draft 2001-2002 JAFDP will be available for public review after August 25, 2001 at neighborhood service centers, community centers, and Seattle Parks and Recreation at 100 Dexter Ave North. A copy will also be available on the Seattle Parks website: www.cityofseattle.net/parks/

Public comment can also be provided until October 5th by phone, email or fax. To make comment or find out more information about the JAFDP, please contact
