

REEL to REAL Film & Discussion Series

Your ticket to films that inspire, enrich, & enlighten

Tuesday,
February 24
Noon - 2 pm

Seattle City Hall
Bertha Landes Room

Bring your sack lunch!

"A film that ought to turn up in film schools everywhere ... a trenchant discussion of black stereotypes in cinema from a man who knows his subject inside out." – New York Times

More information:
Brenda Anibarro 684-4514 or
brenda.anibarro@seattle.gov

This RSJI event can qualify as training for professional/career development. Your department may require completion of a training request form.

Melvin Van Peebles'

Classified X

Classified X examines the treatment of Black characters throughout the history of American cinema. Filmmaker Melvin Van Peebles explores the institutionalization of racism in Hollywood.

Sponsored by the Citywide Black Caucus,
CLBEA and SPU's African American Affinity Group.

Co-sponsored by Human Services Department's Cultural Competency Committee, Filipino American Civic Employees of Seattle (FACES), City Light Black Employees Association (CLBEA), Latino City Employees (LCE), Native American Affinity Group, SPU Diversity Team, SPU African American Affinity Group, SPU Asian and Pacific Islander American Group, SPU Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, Questioning & Friends Group, SPU Hispanic or Latino Affinity Group (HOLA), Citywide Black Caucus, Seattle Office for Civil Rights and the Race and Social Justice Initiative.