

You are Invited to Celebrate

Seattle Human Rights Day

Thursday, December 10, 2009

7:00—8:30 p.m.

Town Hall

Enter on Seneca between 7th and 8th

Parking at Convention Center: $4.00

Sponsored by:

Seattle Office for Civil Rights
The Bush School
United Nations Association
Amnesty International
North Seattle Community College

Co sponsors:

Seattle Human Rights Commission
Seattle Women's Commission
Seattle Urban League Young Professionals
Youth For Human Rights International
Ingallina's Box Lunch
QFC on Pike

Why Women's Rights are the Cause of our Time

Keynote Speaker
Prof. Adrien K. Wing

Keynote speaker Adrien Wing teaches international human rights law at the University of Iowa College of Law. Author of more than 100 publications, Wing is the editor of Critical Race Feminism: A Reader and Global Critical Race Feminism: An International Reader. Her scholarship has focused on race and gender, including topics such as the impact of Hurricane Katrina, gangs, mothering, affirmative action, the war on terrorism, and polygamy in Black America.

Honorees:

- Legal Voice
- Pride Foundation
- De Comunidad a Comunidad
- Joe Martin
- Suk Lin Zhou

Free, Open to the Public
ASL interpretation Provided

Space is Limited, please RSVP to Felicia.Yearwood-Murrell@Seattle.Gov

2009 Award Recipients:

Seattle Human Rights Award

- Legal Voice Staff
 - Tireless advocacy on behalf of women
- Pride Foundation
 - Advocacy for the LGBT community
- Joe Martin, Social Worker, Pike Market Medical Clinic
 - Unsung hero of people in need

Human Rights Youth Award

- Suk Lin Zhou, President, Garfield High School ACLU Club
 - Organizer, advocate, leader

United Nations Association Award

- De Comunidad a Comunidad
 - Women organized for immigrant rights and food justice