

More than 80% of women with children who are homeless have previously experienced domestic violence

Seattle City Council and Seattle Human Services Department Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault Prevention Division jointly present

Through the Lens of Domestic Violence: A Look at Housing and Homelessness

A public forum to look at why stable housing is essential for victims/survivors and develop policies around sustainable housing solutions for victims/survivors.

Introduction:

- Richard Conlin, Seattle City Council

Facilitator:

- Tim Burgess, Seattle City Council

Speakers:

- Linda Olsen, Washington State Coalition Against Domestic Violence
- Linda Weedman, King County Housing Authority
- Ciara Murphy, The Salvation Army
- Linda Rasmussen, YWCA
- Valerie Kendall, Downtown Action to Save Housing
- Emily Nolan, Building Changes

Friday, Sept. 17, 2010
11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.
Seattle Central Library
4th Floor, Room 1
(WaMU Foundation Room)
1000 4th Ave.
Seattle, WA 98104

Note: The 4th Floor meeting room is best accessible via the elevators from the 4th and 5th Ave. entrances

