

THE MUNICIPAL COURT OF SEATTLE

OWE MONEY TO THE COURT THAT HAS GONE TO COLLECTION?

Here's what you can do

- January 2 – March 31, 2004, individuals with outstanding delinquent debt can pay in full to the court with all collection fees and accrued interest waived.
- Payments can be made in cash, by personal check, and by VISA, MasterCard or debit card.

Payment option locations include:

The Seattle Justice Center

600 Fifth Avenue
Seattle, WA 98104

Hours of operation: Mon, Thur, & Fri – 8:00-5:00pm
Tue & Wed – 8:00-8:00pm

To find out how much you owe: Call the court at 206-684-5600.

Automated phone system: Call 206-233-7000, credit and debit card account payments can be made 24 hours a day.

Seattle Municipal Court website: www.cityofseattle.net/courts When accessing information through the court's website, please have your case # or citation # available.

Neighborhood Service Centers*

Lake City Neighborhood Service Center

12707 30th Ave. NE

Ballard Neighborhood Service Center

2305 NW Market Street

Southeast Neighborhood Service Center

4859 Rainier Ave. South

West Seattle Neighborhood Service Center

4750 California Ave. SW

Central Neighborhood Service Center

Promenade 23

2301 S. Jackson St., Suite 208

*The Neighborhood Service Centers will accept cash or checks only. For credit or debit card usage, please contact Seattle Municipal Court.

The Neighborhood Service Centers do not have the capacity to research your case. If you need further information, please contact Seattle Municipal Court directly at 684-5600.