Afternoon all,

I realized I had the timing off on my earlier timeline, as we changed it from last year - from 2 concurrent debates (5 doors open, 6 to 7:30 program) to 1 debate (5:30 doors open, 6-7pm program).

Attached is the latter timeline. Let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks!
Allie

Thanks, Christina! I think a sentence like that is a good addition.

I've edited down the poll options a bit and sent it to CR and Essex. I'll send a calendar invitation once I hear back from them. (I also sent them the draft timeline, should they have any initial feedback.)

Thanks!

Thanks, Allie! I am including our media point person, James Sido. I am asking him to fill out the Doodle poll ,hopefully he can attend as well. We will write Jon's remarks and circulate them to the group.

I think we would like if Jon could have a one sentence explanation of why this is important to Downtown (ie why DSA is excited to partner on this event.) This will be brief.

Thanks!

Subject: remaining action items re: 7/14 7th CD Debate

Good morning Valerie and Christina!

Now that our Annual Benefit is behind me, I'm turning my attention to our 7th CD Debate - coming up in two and a half weeks! Yikes! I'm in denial that it's almost July!...

Below is a list of our remaining action items:

1. Finalize the timeline, including chosen debate elements. Please take a look at the attachment and let me know if you have any suggested edits.
2. Schedule a moderator prep meeting. I'm happy to prep the moderators myself, but if either of you would like to attend, please respond to this availability poll by EOB today if possible, so I can reach out to Essex and CR to get something on their calendars.
3. Create draft questions for moderator meeting. I've started this google doc for us to add questions as we think of them. I'll add some today and tomorrow.
4. Marketing: I'm cc'ing our Communications Director, Randi Bagley. Can both of you connect Randi with your marketing teams so they can collaborate on a plan for the next two weeks?
5. Set up: Valerie - Can we have two podiums (next to each other) stage right, with one table center stage for the three candidates, with mics for each? Also, can we have 3 outreach tables inside for our three orgs' outreach and two bistro tables at the entrance for registration?

Did SPL attend this active planning meeting?

DSA and Seattle City Club each hosted an outreach table? What happened to SPL's outreach table?

6. Signage: We'll create signs thanking our sponsor and all partners. We'll also bring our CityClub banner for a background behind the candidates. If you have standing banners, please bring them as well for the entrance and/or your outreach tables.
7. Scripts: I'll write Diane's, of course. Do either of you need any direction or support for MT or Jon's script?
8. KIRO - Valerie- Did they get everything they need for their plan to livestream?

DSA and SPL

Seattle City Club's offer to collaborate/ script the Seattle Librarian's public address.

Please let me know if there's anything on your mind or to do list that should be listed here.

Thanks!!

Allie

Please note my new email address.

Thank you for participating in this debate, presented by Seattle CityClub, The Seattle Public Library, and Downtown Seattle Association. With our moderators C.R. Douglas of Q13 FOX News and Essex Porter of KIRO 7, we look forward to a lively and stimulating discussion. The purpose of this notice is to provide you with further details. The event announcement for this debate is available on SeattleCityClub.org. This is the language used in most of the publicity by Seattle CityClub, our partners Downtown Seattle Association and The Seattle Public Library, our sponsor The Boeing Company, and our community partners.

Approach to questions:

Strong differences of opinion and perspective inevitably arise and are large part of both the fun and importance of our conversations. We pride ourselves on our history of discussing real differences in an open and respectful manner and we appreciate you joining us in that spirit.

Specifics:

SPL's audio recording for podcasting here not yet listed as it was six hours later in June 27th 3PM edition of schedule by A. Johnson.

Date:	Wednesday, July 14, 2016
Type of event:	Free, evening debate. Please arrive early as we will begin the debate at 5:30pm.
Place:	The Seattle Public Library, Central Library, 1000 4th Avenue, with a parking entrance on Spring Street between Fourth and Fifth Avenues. More transportation info. here .
Time:	Doors open at 5:30 pm. The program will run from 6:00 to 7:00pm. We ask that candidates arrive at the Central Library's Microsoft Auditorium no later than 5:45 pm as we will begin promptly at 6:00 pm.
Broadcast/web presence:	Seattle Channel will film the debate for later broadcast. KIRO 7 will live-stream the debate on their website and apps. Other media may be present.

Evidences active participation by SPL in the content of the event. MT's participation was eventually scrubbed, even after a script had been composed. Only SCC and DSA made welcoming remarks on 7/14.

5:30 p.m.	Doors open
5:45 p.m.	At the latest, candidates and moderators arrive, meet each other, and go over any last minute details as necessary.
5:55 p.m.	Candidates are seated at their assigned tables.
5:57 p.m.	Seattle Public Library librarian, Marcellus Turner , welcomes audience.
6:00 p.m.	CityClub's Diane Douglas thanks partners and sponsors, explains format, gives ground rules for candidates and audience
6:03 p.m.	Downtown Seattle Associations' Jon Scholes asks "undecided" voters to raise their card, introduces C.R. Douglas and Essex Porter to the stage.
6:05 p.m.	CR will welcome candidates
6:06 p.m.	Essex invites candidates to take 1 minute for an opening statement.
6:10 p.m.	Approximately 30 min of Q&A, including one "lightning" round and "rapid response" questions (details below)
6:40 p.m.	Audience questions (submitted in writing)
6:53 p.m.	Essex invites candidates to take 30 seconds for a closing statement.
6:55 p.m.	CR thanks candidates for their participation
6:56 p.m. (at the latest)	Diane asks audience to join her in thanking CR, Essex, and candidates, asks remaining undecideds to raise their card, asks voters if they changed their mind about their vote or a candidate (answer with Yes, No, Waffle card), makes closing remarks.

Further Debate Details:

- Response time for each question will be 1 minute per candidate, unless otherwise stated.
- There will be 1 of CityClub's "Lightning" rounds. Candidates will only be allowed to answer by raising a "Yes", "No", or "Waffle" card.
- We will ask a few "rapid response" questions, to which we're asking for a fast one or two word answer from each of you. Potential questions include:
 - What issue isn't getting enough public attention in this year's election?
 - What career would you choose if you weren't a politician?
- We will take questions from the audience through question cards - before candidates make closing remarks.
- There are no formal rebuttals. Candidates may take some of their allotted answer time for rebuttals as they choose.
- Key subjects of the moderator's prepared questions include: housing, transportation, public safety, growth and more.

Audience Guidelines:

Audience will be given instructions by CityClub's Executive Director at the beginning of the program.

- Please hold all applause or other audible commentary until the end of the program.
- Audience questions will be addressed to one candidate only.
- We will collect question cards throughout the program. If you have a candidate in mind for your question, please specify. Otherwise the moderator will assign your question to a particular candidate.
- We will accommodate as many audience questions as time allows.

Campaign Literature Guidelines:

Due to Seattle Public Library policies, campaign literature is not allowed in the building or the room itself.

CityClub's Policy on Candidate Forums

CityClub has a "Policy on Candidate Forums," adopted in 1998, which includes evaluation criteria for participation in candidate forums. Invited candidates have met the policy's criteria. For the full policy, please click here.

I want to check back on this and see if you'd still like to do a site visit. I am around most week days between now and the debate, and Chris, our leave A/V person is cc'd on this email. He can help make sure we arrange a time that works for him or one of his a/v colleagues to join.

Let me know if you'd still like to arrange a time and if so what options exist for you.

Evidences active collaboration by SPL staff (V. Wonder) in the content of the candidate forum.

Thanks for the updates, Allie! My response are in red.

Evidences that SPL's Andra Addison (the same who produced records of the Keller PRA) was actively engaged in marketing the forum to the public in collaboration with DSA and SCC.

Below is a list of our remaining action items:

- Finalize the timeline, including chosen debate elements. Please take a look at the attachment and let me know if you have any suggested edits. A few minor ones – attached.
- Schedule a moderator prep meeting. I'm happy to prep the moderators myself, but if either of you would like to attend, please respond to this availability poll by EOB today if possible, so I can reach out to Essex and CR to get something on their calendars. I just looked at the doodle and realize I could do Friday at 9am as well if that is helpful for you—I updated my answer. If my times are not good for Essex and CR though, go ahead without me.
- Create draft questions for moderator meeting. I've started this google doc for us to add questions as we think of them. I'll add some today and tomorrow. I'll take a look tomorrow.
- Marketing: I'm cc'ing our Communications Director, Randi Bagley. Can both of you connect Randi with your marketing teams so they can collaborate on a plan for the next two weeks? Randi – Andra Addison oversees our marketing and communications. She's cc'd.
- Set up: Valerie - Can we have two podiums (next to each other) stage right, with one table center stage for the three candidates, with mics for each? Also, can we have 3 outreach tables inside for our three orgs' outreach and two bistro tables at the entrance for registration? Yes, we can do this. I checked with our Events staff through and they are concerned that it will look a little cluttered to have two podiums next to each other. As you might remember our podium is large. It might look better to use the single podium, or to have a second one on the other side of the candidates? Let me know if you want to talk through this some. Also – we discussed tablecloths but I can't remember what we decided on... Do you each have your own for your outreach tables?
- Signage: We'll create signs thanking our sponsor and all partners. We'll also bring our CityClub banner for a background behind the candidates. If you have standing banners, please bring them as well for the entrance and/or your outreach tables. We will want SPL signage visible onscreen. The sign on the podium or an SPL tablecloth can work for this if the standing sign is too much.
- Scripts: I'll write Diane's, of course. Do either of you need any direction or support for MT or Jon's script? I think we're good. His words will be very brief.
- KIRO - Valerie- Did they get everything they need for their plan to livestream? As you probably saw, I just emailed KIRO – I hadn't heard back and it fell off my radar. Hopefully we can set up a walk through with them soon, but I believe our A/V set up should work fine for them, so am not expecting any issues to arise.

Please let me know if there's anything on your mind or to do list that should be listed here.

Evidences SPL's active coordination of DSA/ SCC's event

7th Congressional District Debate

Presented by Seattle CityClub, The Seattle Public Library, Downtown Seattle Association

DRAFT QUESTIONS/SHOW FLOW

6:05 Welcome Candidates (C.R.)

Opening Question (Essex) (1 min. response) What motivated you to run to represent Washington's 7th?

6:10 Long-form Part A (1 min response unless otherwise noted)

- What dream legislation – not currently being considered – would you work to help pass?
- What legislation affecting the 7th Congressional District did you NOT support in the last two years? Why?
- WA 7th is known primarily for including (most of) Seattle. What is one issue – important to WA 7th voters outside of Seattle – that you'd work to address? (Burien, Vashon, Shoreline, Edmonds...)
- Pramila Jayapal - Given your knowledge and experience with immigration issues, what immigration reform do you think would be feasible to achieve in one term?
- Joe McDermott - You've circulated a pledge to your fellow candidates, what you're calling the People's Pledge, to "make repealing the Citizens United ruling our top priority once in Congress." Is it safe to say, then, that taking big money out of politics is your biggest issue?
- Brady Walkinshaw -- You've said that fighting climate change is your top priority. What would a climate bill that you would introduce (or sponsor) look like?
- Is there any part of the Republican Party platform that you agree with?

6:25 "Rapid Response" (phrases for answers!)

- What committee do you want to serve on?
- What current or previous congressman best fits your policy positions?
- A variation of the proverbial "stranded on a deserted island" question... What three things would you bring to a sit-in on the House floor?
- If you do move to the other Washington for this job, what local establishment will you miss the most?
- How would you describe this district?
- What two personality traits best serve a member of Congress?
- Who inspires you? From whom have you learned the most?

6:35 Yes/No/Waffle ("Lightning Round") [Note: Audience participates with their own cards]

Needed: 2-3 additional Lightning Round Qs

- On the ballot: How will you vote on I-1491, the guns measure which "would allow police, family, or household members to obtain court orders temporarily preventing firearms access by persons exhibiting mental illness, violent or other behavior indicating they may harm themselves or others"?
- On the ballot: How will you vote on I-732, the carbon tax measure which "would impose a carbon emission tax on certain fossil fuels and fossil-fuel-generated electricity, reduce the sales tax by one percentage point and increase a low-income exemption, and reduce certain manufacturing taxes”?

Long-form Part B (IF TIME) (1 min response unless otherwise noted)

- (Series of Qs - 2 per candidate?) What federal resources would you want to bring to the issues of:
 - Housing/ Homelessness?
 - Transportation?
 - Environment?
 - Immigration?
 - Education?
 - Civil rights?
- How do you differentiate yourself from your opponents?
- In your political careers to date, what issue have you changed your mind about?
- Given the hyper-partisanship in the House, how will you get things done? Build bridges with elected colleagues you don't agree with?

(6:40) Audience Questions (Address to individual candidates)

Submitted to date:

- (McDermott) I have a lot of concerns about increased surveillance and co-operation between local authorities and national databases. Would you support a public discussion about transparency, oversight, and boundaries around the surveillance activities in our community?
- (Jayapal) How will you will you work to advance laws, policies and opportunities for LGBTQ children, youth, adults, and families. For example will you work to advance H.R.3185 - Equality Act, work to get data categories on the census and other federal programs that capture sexual orientation and gender identity?
- (Walkinshaw) Given an example or two of how you were able to get support from colleagues (normally-supportive and surprising/other party) to pass a challenging piece of legislation.
- What are your priorities on foreign policy issues?

(6:53) Closing Question (Essex) (30 sec response) What will be different in 2 years because of your leadership?

(6:55) Thank candidates (CR)

(6:56) Diane thanks CR, Essex, candidates and closes program

Thank you for participating in this debate, presented by Seattle CityClub, The Seattle Public Library, and Downtown Seattle Association. With our moderators C.R. Douglas of Q13 FOX News and Essex Porter of KIRO 7, we look forward to a lively and stimulating discussion. The purpose of this notice is to provide you with further details. The event announcement for this debate is available on SeattleCityClub.org. This is the language used in most of the publicity by Seattle CityClub, our partners Downtown Seattle Association and The Seattle Public Library, our sponsor The Boeing Company, and our community partners.

Approach to questions:

Strong differences of opinion and perspective inevitably arise and are large part of both the fun and importance of our conversations. We pride ourselves on our history of discussing real differences in an open and respectful manner and we appreciate you joining us in that spirit.

Specifics:

Date:	Wednesday, July 14, 2016
Type of event:	Free, evening debate. Please arrive early as we will begin the debate at 6:00pm.
Place:	The Seattle Public Library, Central Library, 1000 4th Avenue, with a parking entrance on Spring Street between Fourth and Fifth Avenues. More transportation info. here .
Time:	Doors open at 5:30 pm. The program will run from 6:00 to 7:00pm. We ask that candidates arrive at the Central Library's Microsoft Auditorium no later than 5:45 pm as we will begin promptly at 6:00 pm.
Broadcast/web presence:	Seattle Channel will film the debate for later broadcast. KIRO 7 will live-stream the debate on their website and apps. Other media may be present.

5:30 p.m.	Doors open
5:45 p.m.	At the latest, candidates and moderators arrive, meet each other, and go over any last minute details as necessary.
5:55 p.m.	Candidates are seated at their assigned tables.
5:57 p.m.	Seattle Public Library librarian, Marcellus Turner , welcomes audience.
6:00 p.m.	CityClub's Diane Douglas thanks partners and sponsors, explains format, gives ground rules for candidates and audience
6:03 p.m.	Downtown Seattle Associations' Jon Scholes asks "undecided" voters to raise their card, introduces C.R. Douglas and Essex Porter to the stage.
6:05 p.m.	CR will welcome candidates
6:06 p.m.	Essex invites candidates to take 1 minute for an opening statement.
6:10 p.m.	Approximately 30 min of Q&A, including one "lightning" round and "rapid response" questions (details below)
6:40 p.m.	Audience questions (submitted in writing)
6:53 p.m.	Essex invites candidates to take 30 seconds for a closing statement.
6:55 p.m.	CR thanks candidates for their participation
6:56 p.m. (at the latest)	Diane asks audience to join her in thanking CR, Essex, and candidates, asks remaining undecideds to raise their card, asks voters if they changed their mind about their vote or a candidate (answer with Yes, No, Waffle card), makes closing remarks.

Further Debate Details:

- Response time for each question will be 1 minute per candidate, unless otherwise stated.
- There will be 1 of CityClub's "Lightning" rounds. Candidates will only be allowed to answer by raising a "Yes", "No", or "Waffle" card.
- We will ask a few "rapid response" questions, to which we're asking for a fast one or two word answer from each of you. Potential questions include:
 - What issue isn't getting enough public attention in this year's election?
 - What career would you choose if you weren't a politician?
- We will take questions from the audience through question cards - before candidates make closing remarks.
- There are no formal rebuttals. Candidates may take some of their allotted answer time for rebuttals as they choose.
- Key subjects of the moderator's prepared questions include: housing, transportation, public safety, growth and more.

Audience Guidelines:

Audience will be given instructions by CityClub's Executive Director at the beginning of the program.

- Please hold all applause or other audible commentary until the end of the program.
- Audience questions will be addressed to one candidate only.
- We will collect question cards throughout the program. If you have a candidate in mind for your question, please specify. Otherwise the moderator will assign your question to a particular candidate.
- We will accommodate as many audience questions as time allows.

Campaign Literature Guidelines:

Due to Seattle Public Library policies, campaign literature is not allowed in the building or the room itself.

CityClub's Policy on Candidate Forums

CityClub has a "Policy on Candidate Forums," adopted in 1998, which includes evaluation criteria for participation in candidate forums. Invited candidates have met the policy's criteria. For the full policy, please click here.

If you have any questions about the forum between now and Wednesday, July 14, please feel free to give me a call at CityClub. We are truly excited about having you participate in this debate.

Thank you!

Thanks, Valerie! Apologies for my delayed response:

- I made your edits to the timeline. Thank you!
- If she hasn't already, Randi will be in touch with Andra (and James) about marketing.
- We'd love to use your linens for all of the tables if they're available. We do have 5 or so white linens ourselves, but few of them are the same size. Just let me know if we should bring ours!
- Re: signage, I think the SPL podium sign makes a lot of sense. I think we can use all our standing signs either at the outreach tables or the entrance/exit like we did last time around.
- Re: podiums: If there's time on our call today, let's ask Essex/CR about their preference. If there's not time, I'll email them about it after. The reason I was thinking about having them next to each other is I know that's what Essex prefers when he's co-moderating; it allows them to compare notes, change directions in the moment if they desire. I remember your podiums were large, but I worry about a possible who's on first, mic dance... For us to think about/discuss.
- Thanks for coordinating with KIRO! ← SCC's A. Johnson thanking SPL's V. Wonder for "coordinating" with KIRO television broadcaster - who "live" streamed broadcast of the forum.

Talk to you soon!

Below is a list of our remaining action items:

1. Finalize the timeline, including chosen debate elements. Please take a look at the attachment and let me know if you have any suggested edits. A few minor ones – attached.
2. Schedule a moderator prep meeting. I'm happy to prep the moderators myself, but if either of you would like to attend, please respond to this availability poll by EOB today if possible, so I can reach out to Essex and CR to get something on their calendars. I just looked at the doodle and realize I could do Friday at 9am as well if that is helpful for you—I updated my answer. If my times are not good for Essex and CR though, go ahead without me.
3. Create draft questions for moderator meeting. I've started this google doc for us to add questions as we think of them. I'll add some today and tomorrow. I'll take a look tomorrow. ← SPL's V. Wonder's active participation in question development
4. Marketing: I'm cc'ing our Communications Director, Randi Bagley. Can both of you connect Randi with your marketing teams so they can collaborate on a plan for the next two weeks? Randi – Andra Addison oversees our marketing and communications. She's cc'd.
5. Set up: Valerie - Can we have two podiums (next to each other) stage right, with one table center stage for the three candidates, with mics for each? Also, can we have 3 outreach tables inside for our three orgs' outreach and two bistro tables at the entrance for registration? Yes, we can do this. I checked with our Events staff through and they are concerned that it will look a little cluttered to have two podiums next to each other. As you might remember our podium is large. It might look better to use the single podium, or to have a second one on the other side of the candidates? Let me know if you want to talk through this some. Also – we discussed tablecloths but I can't remember what we decided on... Do you each have your own for your outreach tables?

6. Signage: We'll create signs thanking our sponsor and all partners. We'll also bring our CityClub banner for a background behind the candidates. If you have standing banners, please bring them as well for the entrance and/or your outreach tables. We will want SPL signage visible onscreen. The sign on the podium or an SPL tablecloth can work for this if the standing sign is too much.
7. Scripts: I'll write Diane's, of course. Do either of you need any direction or support for MT or Jon's script? I think we're good. His words will be very brief.
8. KIRO - Valerie- Did they get everything they need for their plan to livestream? As you probably saw, I just emailed KIRO – I hadn't heard back and it fell off my radar. Hopefully we can set up a walk through with them soon, but I believe our A/V set up should work fine for them, so am not expecting any issues to arise.

Please let me know if there's anything on your mind or to do list that should be listed here.

Afternoon all,

Question: How did SSC/SPL structure the 2015 forum? Which candidates did they include/exclude?

I realized I had the timing off on my earlier timeline, as we changed it from last year - from 2 concurrent debates (5 doors open, 6 to 7:30 program) to 1 debate (5:30 doors open, 6-7pm program).

Attached is the latter timeline. Let me know if you have any questions.

Thanks!

Hi Valerie,

I haven't heard back from AV yet and was hoping to setup a time that we could chat with them and do a site survey?

Thanks!

Continual reference to partnership/participation amongst SCC, SPL and DSA to host this candidate forum.

Good afternoon Candidates -

Thank you in advance for your participation in Seattle CityClub, The Seattle Public Library, and Downtown Seattle Association's 7th Congressional District Debate on Thursday, July 14.

Doors open at 5:30 pm; the debate will run from 6:00 to 7:00pm. Candidates should arrive no later than 5:45 pm.

The format will include questions from our moderators C.R. Douglas and Essex Porter, audience Q&A, one "Rapid Response" round, and more. See attached for detail, including a timeline, debate rules, etc.

Please don't hesitate to contact me if you have any questions! We look forward to your participation on Thursday 7/14.

My best,
Allie

Please note my new email address.

Thank you for participating in this debate, presented by Seattle CityClub, The Seattle Public Library, and Downtown Seattle Association. With our moderators C.R. Douglas of Q13 FOX News and Essex Porter of KIRO 7, we look forward to a lively and stimulating discussion. The purpose of this notice is to provide you with further details. The event announcement for this debate is available on SeattleCityClub.org. This is the language used in most of the publicity by Seattle CityClub, our partners Downtown Seattle Association and The Seattle Public Library, our sponsor The Boeing Company, and our community partners.

Approach to questions:

Strong differences of opinion and perspective inevitably arise and are a large part of both the fun and importance of our conversations. We pride ourselves on our history of discussing real differences in an open and respectful manner and we appreciate you joining us in that spirit.

Specifics:

Date:	Wednesday, July 14, 2016
Type of event:	Free, evening debate. Please arrive early as we will begin the debate at 6:00pm.
Place:	The Seattle Public Library, Central Library, 1000 4th Avenue, with a parking entrance on Spring Street between Fourth and Fifth Avenues. More transportation info. here .
Time:	Doors open at 5:30 pm. The program will run from 6:00 to 7:00pm. We ask that candidates arrive at the Central Library's Microsoft Auditorium no later than 5:45 pm as we will begin promptly at 6:00 pm.
Broadcast/web presence:	KIRO 7 will live-stream the debate on their website and apps. The Seattle Public Library will record the debate for podcast. Other media may be present. →

Evidence's SPL's active media production from the event. Seattle City Channel's recording of the June 27 and June 30th draft programs has now been removed on this July 5th version. Question: Did KIRO nix Seattle Channel's archiving?

5:30 p.m.	Doors open
5:45 p.m.	At the latest, candidates and moderators arrive, meet each other, and go over any last minute details as necessary.
5:55 p.m.	Candidates are seated at their assigned tables.
5:57 p.m.	The Seattle Public Library's City librarian, Marcellus Turner , welcomes audience.
6:00 p.m.	CityClub's Diane Douglas thanks partners and sponsors, explains format, gives ground rules for candidates and audience
6:03 p.m.	Downtown Seattle Associations' Jon Scholes asks "undecided" voters to raise their card, introduces C.R. Douglas and Essex Porter to the stage.
6:05 p.m.	CR will welcome candidates
6:06 p.m.	Essex invites candidates to take 1 minute for an opening statement. (What motivated you to run to represent Washington's 7th?)
6:10 p.m.	Approximately 30 min of Q&A, including one "lightning" round and "rapid response" questions (details below)
6:40 p.m.	Audience questions (submitted in writing)
6:53 p.m.	Essex invites candidates to take 30 seconds for a closing statement. (What will be different in 2 years because of your leadership?)
6:55 p.m.	CR thanks candidates for their participation
6:56 p.m. (at the latest)	Diane asks audience to join her in thanking CR, Essex, and candidates, asks remaining undecideds to raise their card, asks voters if they changed their mind about their vote or a candidate (answer with Yes, No, Waffle card), makes closing remarks.

Further Debate Details:

- Response time for each question will be 1 minute per candidate, unless otherwise stated.
- There will be 1 of CityClub's "Lightning" rounds. Candidates will only be allowed to answer by raising a "Yes", "No", or "Waffle" card.
- We will ask a few "rapid response" questions, to which we're asking for a fast one or two word answer from each of you. Potential questions include:
 - What issue isn't getting enough public attention in this year's election?
 - What career would you choose if you weren't a politician?
- We will take questions from the audience through question cards - before candidates make closing remarks.
- There are no formal rebuttals. Candidates may take some of their allotted answer time for rebuttals as they choose.
- Key subjects of the moderator's prepared questions include: housing, trade, foreign policy, minimum wage and more.

Audience Guidelines:

Audience will be given instructions by CityClub's Executive Director at the beginning of the program.

- Please hold all applause or other audible commentary until the end of the program.
- Audience questions will be addressed to one candidate only.
- We will collect question cards throughout the program. If you have a candidate in mind for your question, please specify. Otherwise the moderator will assign your question to a particular candidate.
- We will accommodate as many audience questions as time allows.

Campaign Literature Guidelines:

Due to Seattle Public Library policies, campaign literature is not allowed in the building or the room itself.

CityClub's Policy on Candidate Forums

CityClub has a "Policy on Candidate Forums," adopted in 1998, which includes evaluation criteria for participation in candidate forums. Invited candidates have met the policy's criteria. For the full policy, please click here.

If you have any questions about the forum between now and Wednesday, July 14, please feel free to give me a call at CityClub. We are truly excited about having you participate in this debate.

Hello All,

I hope you're getting back in the swing of things after a lovely and relaxing long weekend. As of this morning, we have 77 people registered for next week's 7th Congressional Debate. We'd like to have at least double that amount going into the evening, so I'm cranking up our marketing this week and hope you can do the same:

- I've created an event on Facebook and tagged both DSA and SPL. Please share, etc.
<https://www.facebook.com/events/1037242829704658/>
- I'll send out another mass e-vite to our folks later this week
- I'll continue to press on social media
- Our web ad will be on Crosscut.com this week

Question: What was the monetary value of all the social media promotion that listed SPL as a host?

All the best,

Thank you,

DSA rushing to obtain SPL logo for a candidate backdrop, obviously for greatest recognition of Seattle Public Library and City Club via the television camera's who would be recording and broadcasting the event.

Hi Allie and others,

Below is a screen capture from the Seattle Channel's coverage of last fall's debate. I had indicated that there is a larger podium sign but apparently my memory is bad because I see from the image below that it must have been removed a long time ago.

James suggested that maybe we could all have our logos on the podium. I don't think that will register very well. I don't even think you can see the SPL sign below very well and adding another below it probably won't be very effective. I do think that, given the size of the area, both DSA and SPL could have our standing banners to either side of the City Club banner.

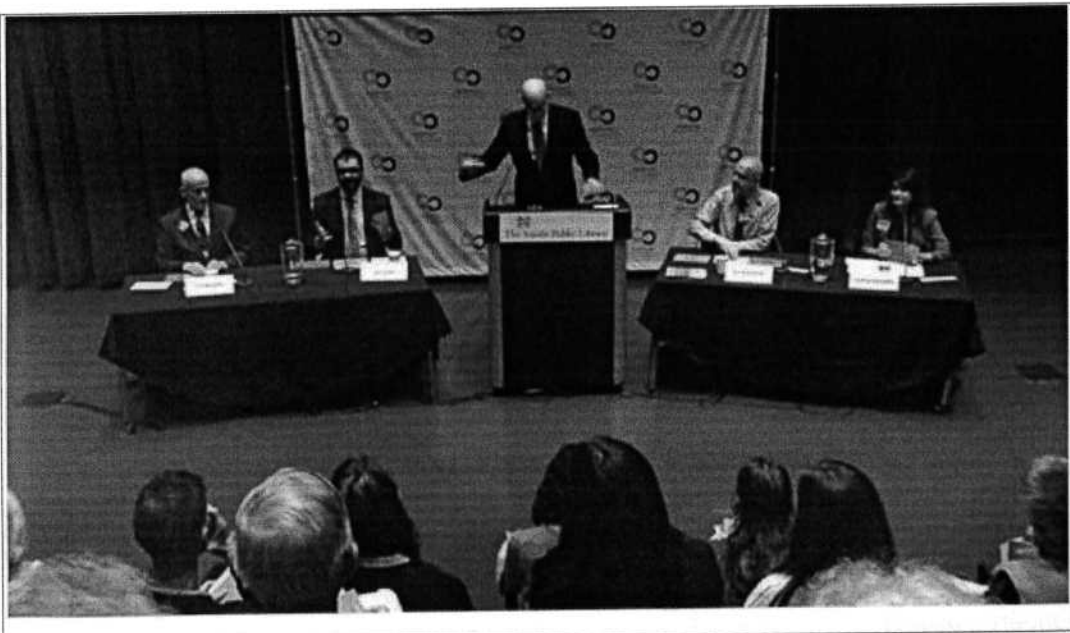

SPL's V. Wonder assessing the best presentation of SPL's logo through television media, including Seattle City Channel!!!! How to best present SPL partial underwriting of the forum through its state-owned media channel! This has gone way beyond nominal "hosting" of the event, but into media perpetuation of this forum and recognition of SPL's participation.

Thoughts?

Also – regarding the lay out – I heard Essex loud and clear that he wants to be next to CR, have sufficient space, and be angled towards the candidates. I think that will work fine and we can make it happen with two podiums. It will be a little visually unbalanced, but if I don't hear otherwise we'll go with it.

Valerie

Photographic proof that SPL has long craved recognition alongside Seattle City Club in candidate forums. Which candidates of this particular race did Seattle City Club/SPL exclude?

banner!
Outrageous!

Thanks, Valerie, for sending this along! It sounds like James' thought to create a three logo banner will work. I think you're right that a lot of podium signs would not look good, especially with a likely busy background.

And yes, go forth with the two podiums next to each other.

Thanks!

Hi MT and Andra,

City Librarian Marcellus Turner

MT and Theresa Fujiwara received the email below from a 7th congressional district candidate who is upset that he is not invited to participate in the debate next week. City Club has always had very clear criteria about who they invite to participate in their debates. It is outlined on their website and listed below. I was aware of it, and it was around for debates prior to when I began working with them.

Let me know if you want to discuss -- my cell is 2063834512 and I am in town all weekend.

Thanks,

Valerie

From their website:

The goal of CityClub in presenting candidate forums is to enable voters and constituent groups to make better informed choices on election day. In furtherance of this goal, CityClub will apply select criteria to evaluate individuals for inclusion in candidate forums it sponsors. CityClub's primary objective in choosing and applying its selection criteria is to be fair, objective, and nonpartisan.

The criteria listed below are to be used as a tool by the Program Committee in its decision whether or not to include an individual in a CityClub sponsored candidates forum. The criteria listed below are to be afforded substantial consideration, but CityClub reserves the right to add or subtract criteria so long as the objective remains that a fair, informative, objective, and nonpartisan process is observed.

Whether to include a candidate in a forum will be determined by the Program Committee, the Program Committee Chairs and CityClub staff. If no consensus is reached, the Executive Director will make the final decision, subject only to a contrary decision reached by a majority of Cabinet.

CityClub evaluation criteria for participation in candidates forums:

- Whether the individual is a declared candidate.
- The current level of funds raised by the candidate.
- The endorsements the candidate has received.
- The candidate's comparative standing in current election polls.

Dear City Librarian Turner and Board of Trustees President Fujiwara:

I regret to inform you of the practice of an outside programmer of Downtown Main Library's July 14th candidate forum which I am confident you would not condone. Yet Seattle City Club programmers have lured our Library into co-sponsorship of this forum which disregards and excludes six of nine CD-7 candidates. Stewards of our public trust would not knowingly be party to such arbitrary and exclusionary tactic as Seattle City Club's attempt to sway August 2nd voters. At this time, City Club Program Director Allie Johnson, Executive Director Diane Douglas have limited July 14th forum participation to only three of nine candidates - Democrats all - and those who have already raised obscene amounts of dollars.

I am not asserting that such scheming is unusual in this campaign dance of ingratiation and public image crafting. Yes, similar exclusion has recently be committed by private enterprises KING-5 television and The Seattle Times. In contrast, I believe the Seattle Public Library cannot allow our public resource be hijacked for their private agenda and private prejudice.

Since you are the stewards of our Seattle PUBLIC Library, I write to ask that the City Club's conditional use for July 14th be conditioned upon invitation to every filed candidate for the 7th Congressional District. Else rejected. I have copied all excluded candidates, and do wonder whether all were fully aware of this snub that City Club has dragged you into.

Time is short. May I and each candidate hear from you soon?

Yours truly,

Downtown Seattle, like other urban centers on the west coast, is currently experiencing a rise in the number of those sleeping on the streets, oftentimes coupled with addiction and untreated mental illness. James and I have been brainstorming the "Downtown-focused" question and came up with the following:

Downtown Seattle, like other urban centers on the west coast, is currently experiencing a rise in the number of those sleeping on the streets, oftentimes coupled with addiction and untreated mental illness. As citizens, we are told that the solution lies with additional federal action and funding. What would you, as our Member of Congress, do to help solve this issue?

Feel free to wordsmith, just some suggested language to get at what we are hoping they will address.

Thanks,
Christina

Name : DR. ARUN JHAVERI, Candidate for the 7th Congressional District Comments : It will be Illegal and Undemocratic for Essex Porter to participate in the proposed 7th Congressional District Candidates' debate on July 14, 2016, as a Moderator, when 6 out of 9 official Candidates have been excluded from the debate by the Sponsor, Seattle City Club. It should be the Registered Voters in the 7th Congressional District to decide who they will vote for as Best Candidates, NOT any outside entity. This matter has now been forwarded for a decision by the Secretary of State/Elections Division, Attorney General Office, and Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) in Olympia, Wash. as well as to the Federal Election Commission (FEC) in Wash. D.C. According to the law, ALL Candidates must be considered equal before the August 2 Primary and Nov. 8 General Elections, for Candidates' Forums, Debates, etc. that are open to public, and must be invited by the Sponsors of the events. KIRO 7 News must therefore, abide by this Democratic Principle and require that all NINE (9) Candidates be Present at the July 14, 2016 Debate in Seattle. Please Confirm/Respond ASAP. Thanks.

I'm Marcellus Turner, the City Librarian for The Seattle Public Library and I want to welcome you all to tonight's event. Thank you.

We are thrilled to be working with City Club again, and share their commitment to supporting an informed citizenry. We are also happy to have our neighbors the Downtown Seattle Association with us this time. Welcome, DSA.

Forums like these epitomize civic and community engagement, which are top priorities for The Seattle Public Library. We're glad you all are here to share your thoughts and take part in a dialog that will help frame the future of our region and our nation.

It is now my pleasure to introduce to you City Club's Executive Director, Diane Douglas.

Thank you.

Subject: Complaint: SPL Librarian violation of SMC 2.04.300, Washington State Constitution Art. VIII Sec. 7

Dear Ms. Flack,

Following my telephone conversation with Ms. Polly Grow, as well as voice message left for Mr. Wayne Barnett, I now follow Mr. Grow's advice to communicate my ethics/elections complaint directly to you.

Thank you for registering this email as my formal complaint and request for investigation.

As a Seattle resident/voter I now hereby file complaint with the SEEC to examine a unlawful ceding of authority by City Librarian Mr. Marcellus Turner to a private entity to dictate and limit candidate participation in a candidate forum scheduled to take place inside a public building and with consumption of public resources. The said forum is scheduled for the Seattle Downtown Public Library on Thursday, July 14, 6-7 PM.

I and four fellow candidates have called on City Librarian Marcellus Turner to simply invite every filed 7th CD candidate to tomorrow's forum as a way to avoid the present violation of law. Simple! Our press release is attached. He has so far refused, so I now lodge my official complaint and request that the SEEC investigate and take action. Hopefully SEEC's guidance to City Librarian Turner will prompt his reformation to issue invitations to all candidates prior to the commencement of Thursday's debate. I respectfully request SEEC's rapid evaluation and action. Time is of the essence if abuse of public assets for private and political campaign benefit is to be averted by the City Librarian.

The Librarian's present abdication of managerial control over this SPL event is in violation of the Washington State Constitution Chapter VIII Sec. 7 and SMC 2.04.300.

Seattle Municipal Code 2.04.300 - Prohibition against use of public office facilities in campaigns.

"No elected official nor any employee of his or her office nor any person appointed to or employed by any public office or agency may use or authorize the use of any of the facilities of a public office or agency, directly or indirectly, for the purpose of assisting a campaign for election of any person to any office..."

Washington State Constitution Article VIII Section 7

"No county, city town or other municipal corporation shall hereafter give any money, or property, or loan its money, or credit to or in aid of any individual, association, company, except for the necessary support if the poor or infirm..."

I will attach what I consider an unacceptable and unrepentant reply from the City Librarian. It is my opinion the no public employee of the Seattle Public Library can violate SMC 2.04.300 via a ceding of authority to a private organization who then does the dirty work of "directly or indirectly... assisting a campaign." Regardless of whatever buffer current and former SPL Librarians have engineered, at the present time Librarian Turner is effectively and exclusively aiding the City Club-invited campaigns of Jayapal, McDermott and Walkinshaw to the exclusion and harm to the campaigns of all other filed candidates for this same office. This violation of law has been committed in collusion with private Seattle City Club, private media interests of KIRO7 and Q13-Fox and perhaps the Downtown Seattle Association (which whom I have not communicated). All private organizations now vested in the present violation of law are, no surprise, intransigent to simply invite all filed candidate so that none will be harmed. I also attach KIRO7's rejection of candidate Arun Jhaveri's request of KIRO to use its influence as a participant to eliminate the present exclusion. Like the City Librarian, and like the Seattle City Club, KIRO punts all to superficial fealty to some opaque and arbitrary participation criteria set by the private Seattle City Club. So far the Seattle City Club has refused to even divulge to me that exact metrics that was used under their generic criteria to restrict their invitation to only three of nine candidates. Seattle City Club is completely opaque and cannot be allowed to persist in leading the Seattle Public Library by the nose regardless of criteria they cook up. Most fundamentally, the brush offs by City Librarian and KIRO7 have no consequence under law.

Conclusion: If the Seattle PUBLIC Library aids one candidate for public office, then its must aid all official candidates equally. Otherwise the public entity abets a gift of private aid and political advantage to some candidate(s) over others via gift of material voter communication advantages.

Remedy requested: All filed 7-CD candidates be invited by the controlling authority of the Seattle Public Library Librarian to the July 14th Forum at the Downtown Library. Further, that forevermore the Seattle Public Library be enjoined from hosting or co-sponsoring any candidate forum to which the SPL has not first invited all filed candidates.

I and my fellow candidates thank you and SEEC for your attention to the urgent matter.

Signed,

Craig Keller

Bringing power back to WA voters, one debate at a time. Learn more.

Thank you for participating in this debate, presented by Seattle CityClub, The Seattle Public Library, and Downtown Seattle Association. With our moderators C.R. Douglas of Q13 FOX News and Essex Porter of KIRO 7, we look forward to a lively and stimulating discussion. The purpose of this notice is to provide you with further details. The event announcement for this debate is available on SeattleCityClub.org. This is the language used in most of the publicity by Seattle CityClub, our partners Downtown Seattle Association and The Seattle Public Library, our sponsor The Boeing Company, and our community partners.

Approach to questions:

Strong differences of opinion and perspective inevitably arise and are a large part of both the fun and importance of our conversations. We pride ourselves on our history of discussing real differences in an open and respectful manner and we appreciate you joining us in that spirit.

Specifics:

Date:	Wednesday, July 14, 2016
Type of event:	Free, evening debate. Please arrive early as we will begin the debate at 6:00pm.
Place:	The Seattle Public Library, Central Library, 1000 4th Avenue, with a parking entrance on Spring Street between Fourth and Fifth Avenues. More transportation info. here .
Time:	Doors open at 5:30 pm. The program will run from 6:00 to 7:00pm. We ask that candidates arrive at the Central Library's Microsoft Auditorium no later than 5:45 pm as we will begin promptly at 6:00 pm.
Broadcast/web presence:	KIRO 7 will live-stream the debate on their website and apps. The Seattle Public Library will record the debate for podcast. Other media may be present.

No longer mention of the Seattle Channel's participation?
As there was in June 27th and June 30th drafts

5:30 p.m.	Doors open
5:45 p.m.	At the latest, candidates and moderators arrive, meet each other, and go over any last minute details as necessary.
5:55 p.m.	Candidates are seated at their assigned tables.
5:57 p.m.	The Seattle Public Library's City librarian, Marcellus Turner , welcomes audience.
6:00 p.m.	CityClub's Diane Douglas thanks partners and sponsors, explains format, gives ground rules for candidates and audience
6:03 p.m.	Downtown Seattle Associations' Jon Scholes asks "undecided" voters to raise their card, introduces C.R. Douglas and Essex Porter to the stage.
6:05 p.m.	CR will welcome candidates
6:06 p.m.	Essex invites candidates to take 1 minute for an opening statement. (What motivated you to run to represent Washington's 7th?)
6:10 p.m.	Approximately 30 min of Q&A, including one "lightning" round and "rapid response" questions (details below)
6:40 p.m.	Audience questions (submitted in writing)
6:53 p.m.	Essex invites candidates to take 30 seconds for a closing statement. (What will be different in 2 years because of your leadership?)
6:55 p.m.	CR thanks candidates for their participation
6:56 p.m. (at the latest)	Diane asks audience to join her in thanking CR, Essex, and candidates, asks remaining undecideds to raise their card, asks voters if they changed their mind about their vote or a candidate (answer with Yes, No, Waffle card), makes closing remarks.

Further Debate Details:

- Response time for each question will be 1 minute per candidate, unless otherwise stated.
- There will be 1 of CityClub's "Lightning" rounds. Candidates will only be allowed to answer by raising a "Yes", "No", or "Waffle" card.
- We will ask a few "rapid response" questions, to which we're asking for a fast one or two word answer from each of you. Potential questions include:
 - What issue isn't getting enough public attention in this year's election?
 - What career would you choose if you weren't a politician?
- We will take questions from the audience through question cards - before candidates make closing remarks.
- There are no formal rebuttals. Candidates may take some of their allotted answer time for rebuttals as they choose.
- Key subjects of the moderator's prepared questions include: housing, trade, foreign policy, minimum wage and more.

Audience Guidelines:

Audience will be given instructions by CityClub's Executive Director at the beginning of the program.

- Please hold all applause or other audible commentary until the end of the program.
- Audience questions will be addressed to one candidate only.
- We will collect question cards throughout the program. If you have a candidate in mind for your question, please specify. Otherwise the moderator will assign your question to a particular candidate.
- We will accommodate as many audience questions as time allows.

Campaign Literature Guidelines:

Due to Seattle Public Library policies, campaign literature is not allowed in the building or the room itself.

CityClub's Policy on Candidate Forums

CityClub has a "Policy on Candidate Forums," adopted in 1998, which includes evaluation criteria for participation in candidate forums. Invited candidates have met the policy's criteria. For the full policy, please click here.

If you have any questions about the forum between now and Wednesday, July 14, please feel free to give me a call at CityClub. We are truly excited about having you participate in this debate.

Seattle CityClub provides a space to talk about the issues that impact our lives. Dialogue that is passionately nonpartisan. Connections to leaders and local government. Tools and inspiration to make a difference. We engage 47,000 Washingtonians with each other and their communities through programs that bridge politics, professions and generations.
