

Office of Inspector General for Public Safety

Department Overview

The Office of Inspector General for Public Safety (OIG) was established as in 2017 via Ordinance 125315 to help ensure the fairness and integrity of the police system in its delivery of law enforcement services. OIG provides civilian auditing of the management, practices, and policies of Seattle Police Department (SPD) and Office of Police Accountability (OPA) and oversee ongoing fidelity to organizational reforms implemented pursuant to the goals of the 2012 Federal Consent Decree and Memorandum of Understanding.

Responsibilities of OIG include:

- performing oversight activities that ensure the ongoing integrity of SPD processes and operations;
- ensuring SPD is meeting its mission to address crime and improve quality of life through the delivery of Constitutional, professional, and effective police services, and meeting its mission in a way that reflects the values of Seattle's diverse communities;
- conducting risk management reviews and performance audits;
- reviewing misconduct complaint-handling and investigations by the OPA; and
- making recommendations to policymakers for increasing the effectiveness of SPD and related criminal justice system processes.

2018 Adopted Budget - Expenditure by Category

Budget Overview

The 2018 Adopted Budget establishes the annual operating budget for the Office of Inspector General for Public Safety (OIG). In June 2017, a partial-year budget was established to support four positions for the office via Ordinance 125314. The 2018 Adopted Budget doubles the capacity of OIG and provides resources to support four additional positions. It is anticipated that the Council will appoint an Inspector General in early 2018 and hiring of additional staff will commence thereafter. To allow the new Inspector General flexibility in establishing their office staffing needs, specific position authority will be added via ordinance in 2018.

Provisions of the police accountability legislation (Ordinance 125315), and related new funding added in the 2018 Adopted Budget, are subject to approval by US District Court.

Descriptions of Incremental Budget Changes

Proposed Changes

Expand oversight capacity - $426,000

This adjustment provides funding for expansion of the Office of Inspector General for Public Safety's (OIG) staff. Four positions were added to OIG in mid-2017. This adjustment provides partial-year funding for an additional four positions to double the staffing for OIG. Only partial-year funding is provided in 2018, recognizing that there will be a transition period for the Inspector General to assume the role, review staffing needs, work with the Seattle Department of Human Resources to classify positions and recruit and hire staff. The corresponding position authority that accompanies this funding will be added in 2018 once the Inspector General has been hired and has had an opportunity to assess what types of positions would be most valuable and necessary for the office to be successful.

Proposed Technical Changes

Establish baseline budget for Office of Inspector General - $1,028,802/4.00 FTE

This adjustment annualizes the costs of four positions (4.0 FTE) added to OIG in mid-2017 via Ordinance 125314. The adjustment also annualizes the funding needed for day-to-day operations for items such as office supplies, space rent, and consultant funding.
