

Preamble - Definitions and Application of Personnel Rules

Preamble.1 Authority

SMC 4.04.050, and subsequent revisions thereto, Rule Making Authority

Preamble.2 Definitions

The following definitions shall be used for the interpretation and administration of all Personnel Rules, except where subchapters to these Rules provide otherwise.

1. “Actual service” shall mean the total straight-time pay hours accumulated in a title. The first 240 hours per year of authorized unpaid time off for non-disciplinary reasons shall not be deducted from actual service.
2. “Administrative reassignment” means paid leave status which an appointing authority may authorize for any City officer or employee in the appointing authority’s department or office, when such employee is the cause of or subject of, or otherwise significantly affected by an active official investigatory process related to alleged violations of personnel rules, policies of the City and/or City Department, City ordinances, or state or federal laws and/or an investigation intended to determine the employee’s fitness for duty. Administrative reassignment shall not be considered discipline.
3. “Alternative Dispute Resolution Program” or “ADR” shall mean a Citywide function located in the Seattle Department of Human Resources to promote the resolution of workplace disputes through training, mediation, conciliation and facilitated discussion.
4. “Appointing authority” shall mean the head of an employing unit authorized by ordinance or City Charter to employ others on behalf of the City. The term includes and can be used interchangeably with department head, department director, superintendent, or chief.
5. “Appointment” shall mean the placement of an employee in a position by initial hire, promotion, transfer, demotion or reduction.
6. "City-sponsored blood drive" shall mean a blood drive for which times and locations are coordinated by the Seattle Human Resources Director and at which employees must register to verify their participation.
7. “Civil Service Commission” shall mean the Civil Service Commission of the City of Seattle, which is charged with hearing appeals regarding the administration of the personnel system.

8. "Classification specification" shall mean a written description of a classification that includes a title, a description of distinguishing characteristics, a statement of duties and responsibilities, and a statement of minimum qualifications.
9. "Classified service" shall mean all employment positions in the City that are not excluded by ordinance, City Charter or State law from the provisions of Seattle Municipal Code 4.04 or Personnel Rules passed pursuant thereto related to the selection, discipline, termination or appeals of personnel actions to the Civil Service Commission.
10. "Code of Ethics" shall mean Seattle Municipal Code Chapter 4.16 as amended.
11. "Continuous out-of-class assignment" shall mean an ongoing assignment to perform and receive compensation for the duties of a higher-paying title. A continuous out-of-class assignment is broken by the employee's return to their regular payroll title for regular work hours (coded as "AA" pay on the employee's timesheet).
12. "Demotion" shall mean the movement of an employee from such employee's current classification to a classification with a lower maximum salary rate, for justifiable cause.
13. "Discharge" shall mean separation from employment, for justifiable cause.
14. "Disciplinary action" shall mean an action taken by the appointing authority or a designated management representative in response to a proven act of employee misconduct or uncorrected poor work performance. Disciplinary actions include verbal warnings, written reprimands, suspension, demotion and discharge.
15. "Discretionary pay program" shall mean a compensation program in which the appointing authority, in accordance with guidelines and procedures established by the Seattle Human Resources Director, is granted discretion to set pay within the authorized pay zone.
16. "Discrimination," shall mean any act, by itself or as part of a practice, which is intended to or results in different treatment or differentiates between or among individuals or groups of individuals by reason of their protected status. Discrimination includes harassment, such as racial and sexual harassment, as well as harassment based on other protected statuses. To the extent that distinct or differential treatment on the basis of citizenship or immigration status is authorized by federal or state law, regulation or government contract, it is not an unfair practice.

17. "Domestic partner" shall mean an individual with whom an employee shares the same regular and permanent residence, has a close personal relationship, and has agreed to be jointly responsible for basic living expenses incurred during the domestic partnership. To qualify to use sick leave to care for a domestic partner, an employee must file an affidavit of domestic partnership with their employing unit attesting that:
 - a. The filing employee is not married, and
 - b. The filing employee and the filing employee's domestic partner is 18 years of age or older, and
 - c. The filing employee and the filing employee's domestic partner are not related by blood closer than would bar marriage in Washington, and
 - d. The filing employee and the filing employee's domestic partner were mentally competent to consent to contract when their domestic partnership commenced, and
 - e. The filing employee and the filing employee's domestic partner are each other's sole domestic partner, and
 - f. Any other domestic partnership in which the employee or the employee's domestic partner participated with a third party was terminated not less than 90 days prior to the date such employee files an affidavit of domestic partnership, or by the date of the death of the third party, whichever was earlier.
18. "Elected official" shall mean the Mayor, City Councilmembers, City Attorney, and all Municipal Court Judges whether elected or appointed.
19. "Employing unit" shall mean any department of the City and, within the Executive and Legislative Departments, any office created by ordinance.

83. "Transfer" shall mean the movement of an employee from one position to another position in the same class, or with the same maximum pay rate.
84. "Transplant donor" shall mean an employee who voluntarily donates their bone marrow, tissue or organ to a human recipient. The donation must be determined to

- be medically matched and uniquely suited or critical to the successful outcome of a medical procedure intended to save the recipient's life. A transplant donor receives no compensation and has no ability to direct compensation to any other person or entity in exchange for the employee's participation as a donor.
85. "Trial service" shall mean a 12-month trial period of employment for a regular employee who has completed a probation period and who is subsequently appointed via promotion or transfer to a position in another classification, except that the trial period may be extended in accordance with the Seattle Municipal Code and these Rules.
86. "Trial service employee" shall mean an employee who has not yet completed a period of trial service.
87. "Verbal warning" shall mean a verbal notification from the appointing authority or designated management representative to an employee that specified activities or conduct are inappropriate for the work place, that performance standards have not been met, and/or that a violation of work place rules or policies has occurred; and that continuation thereof will result in more severe discipline, up to and including discharge.
88. "Workplace Misconduct" occurs when someone engages in the adverse treatment of an individual, and that conduct unreasonably interferes with another person's work performance, damages another person's employment opportunities, or creates an environment that a reasonable person in a City workplace would consider intimidating, hostile, or abusive.

Examples of Workplace Misconduct can include, but are not limited to, intimidating or hostile acts or other behavior that a reasonable person would find offensive, such as derogatory name-calling, taunting, shouting or swearing at someone, and other types of verbal abuse (e.g., "idiot"); written or graphic materials that humiliate a City employee, or show aggression or hatred, via electronic or physical bulletin boards, cyberbullying, email, or otherwise; retaliating against someone for reporting Workplace Misconduct; spreading malicious rumors about another; making or circulating a joke or jokes that are humiliating, demeaning, or belittling to another City employee; threatening harm to another or other conduct covered by Personnel Rule 8.1.J(3) or (4); or a pattern of that harms a person or group of people and is not a reasonable action taken by a person or management representative relating to the business needs of the workplace.. Workplace Misconduct generally does not include performance management consistent with Personnel Rule 1.5; a respectful and professional conversation or debate between colleagues about a work-related matter; or discipline consistent with Personnel Rule 1.3.

89. “Workweek” shall mean a designated block of 168 hours within which an employee’s work schedule is contained.
90. “Written reprimand” shall mean a written notification from the appointing authority or designated management representative to an employee that specified activities or conduct are inappropriate for the work place, that performances standards have not been met, and/or that a violation of work place rules or policies, and that continuation thereof will result in more severe discipline, up to and including discharge.

Preamble.3 Application of Personnel Rules

All Personnel Rules shall be applied to City employees as described below, except where subchapters to these Rules provide otherwise.

- A. The Personnel Rules apply to all regularly appointed employees.
- B. For regularly appointed employees who are represented under the terms of a collective bargaining agreement, the Personnel Rules shall prevail except where they conflict with the employee’s collective bargaining agreement, any memoranda or agreement or understanding signed pursuant to the collective bargaining agreement, or any established and recognized practice relative to the members of the bargaining unit.
- C. The Personnel Rules do not apply to individuals who are hired under the terms of a grant that includes provisions that conflict with this Rule, nor do they apply to individuals hired under contract to the City. These individuals are subject to all applicable federal, state and City laws.
- D. Except for Chapter 11, the Personnel Rules do not apply to individuals hired by the City on a temporary, intermittent, or seasonal basis, or for a work schedule of fewer than 20 hours per week, nor do they apply to individuals hired under contract to the City. These individuals are subject to all applicable federal, state and City laws.
- E. Appointing authorities may establish written policies and procedures for the implementation of the Personnel Rules to facilitate the management of the personnel system within their employing units, provided that such policies and procedures do not conflict with the provisions of the Personnel Rules.

Preamble.4 Commitment to Anti-Racist/Anti-Biased Outcomes in Administration of Personnel Rules

The City is committed to respect, dignity, civility, inclusion and equity in the workplace and the greater community. These Personnel Rules strive to achieve anti-racist/anti-biased outcomes in the administration of its personnel system; and to provide a fair, equitable experience for all city employees.
