

WEST SEATTLE NEIGHBORHOOD GREENWAY: NORTH ADMIRAL CONNECTION

April 2018

PROJECT BACKGROUND

Since 2016, we've been working with West Seattle community members to select a route for a new north-south West Seattle Neighborhood Greenway from SW Roxbury St to SW Edmunds St. While construction is beginning on the greenway soon, we're excited to extend the greenway and connect the California Junction and North Admiral district. First, we hope to hear from you and your neighbors so that we can create a route extension that is truly community focused, provides connections, and enhances safety for those walking walking and biking in West Seattle.

ROUTE OPTIONS

There are different route options that we would like your input on:

- Through the Junction, the primary option is to connect SW Edmunds St to SW Genesee St via 42nd Ave SW. Because this is within the busy urban village, we want to know what changes to the street would make it a more comfortable place for you to walk and bike.
- Connecting the Junction with North Admiral, there are two main options although we welcome additional ideas:
  - Route Option 1 would continue north on 42nd Ave SW and jog over to Walnut Ave SW
  - Route Option 2 would continue north from SW Genesee St primarily along 44th Ave SW

WHAT IS A NEIGHBORHOOD GREENWAY?

Above is a sketch of a neighborhood greenway. It includes speed humps, a 20-mph speed limit, signs to help people find their way, stop signs for side streets, and a combination of flashing beacons, crosswalks, medians, or traffic signals at busy intersections.

TELL US WHAT YOU THINK

We want to hear from you today. Tell us which route options you prefer and how you and your family and neighbors get around West Seattle and where you go.

- What would make you most comfortable while walking or biking through the North Admiral Junction and California junction business districts
- Which streets would best connect you to your neighborhood destinations?
