

Barbara Downward, Forest Steward Lawton Park

Seattle Urban Forestry Commission Meeting, June 13, 2018

History of Lawton Park

large tree in picture. Jan 2004,

Mar. 2014 large hemlock truck in background

History of Lawton Park

Cooper's Hawk 8/12

Bushtit nest 6/17

• Wetland vegetation 4/18

School Event 4/15/11

History of Lawton Park

Lawton Park area 3A (396) Jan 2004, 26thPl.W.
Installing snowberry hedge on main path.

View of same hedge on Mar. 2014

Feb. 2002 Area3A(#397) trail entrance at 25th Ave W looking N
Note ivy on hill left. Small Persian Ironwood tree by sign. Mulch produced by processing of fallen Red Alder

Mar. 2014 Oregon grape, sword ferns, ash trees, rhododendrons,
Ironwood tree. Note the grass is gone

Success of Lawton Park

Report dates: January 01, 2005 - December 01, 2018

Reported park(s): Lawton Park

Work Log Overview:

Total Number of Work Log Events: 290

Total Number of Volunteer Work Log Events: 263

Volunteer Overview:

Volunteers:	Adults	Youth	Total
Number:	725	501	1159
Hours:	2767.01 hrs	594.15 hrs	3054.48 hrs

Paid Staff:

Number:	94
Hours:	1273.75 hrs

Planted Plants:

Trees	Shrubs	Herbacious Plants	Total
944	3081	1717	5742

Aging/Dying Tree Issues

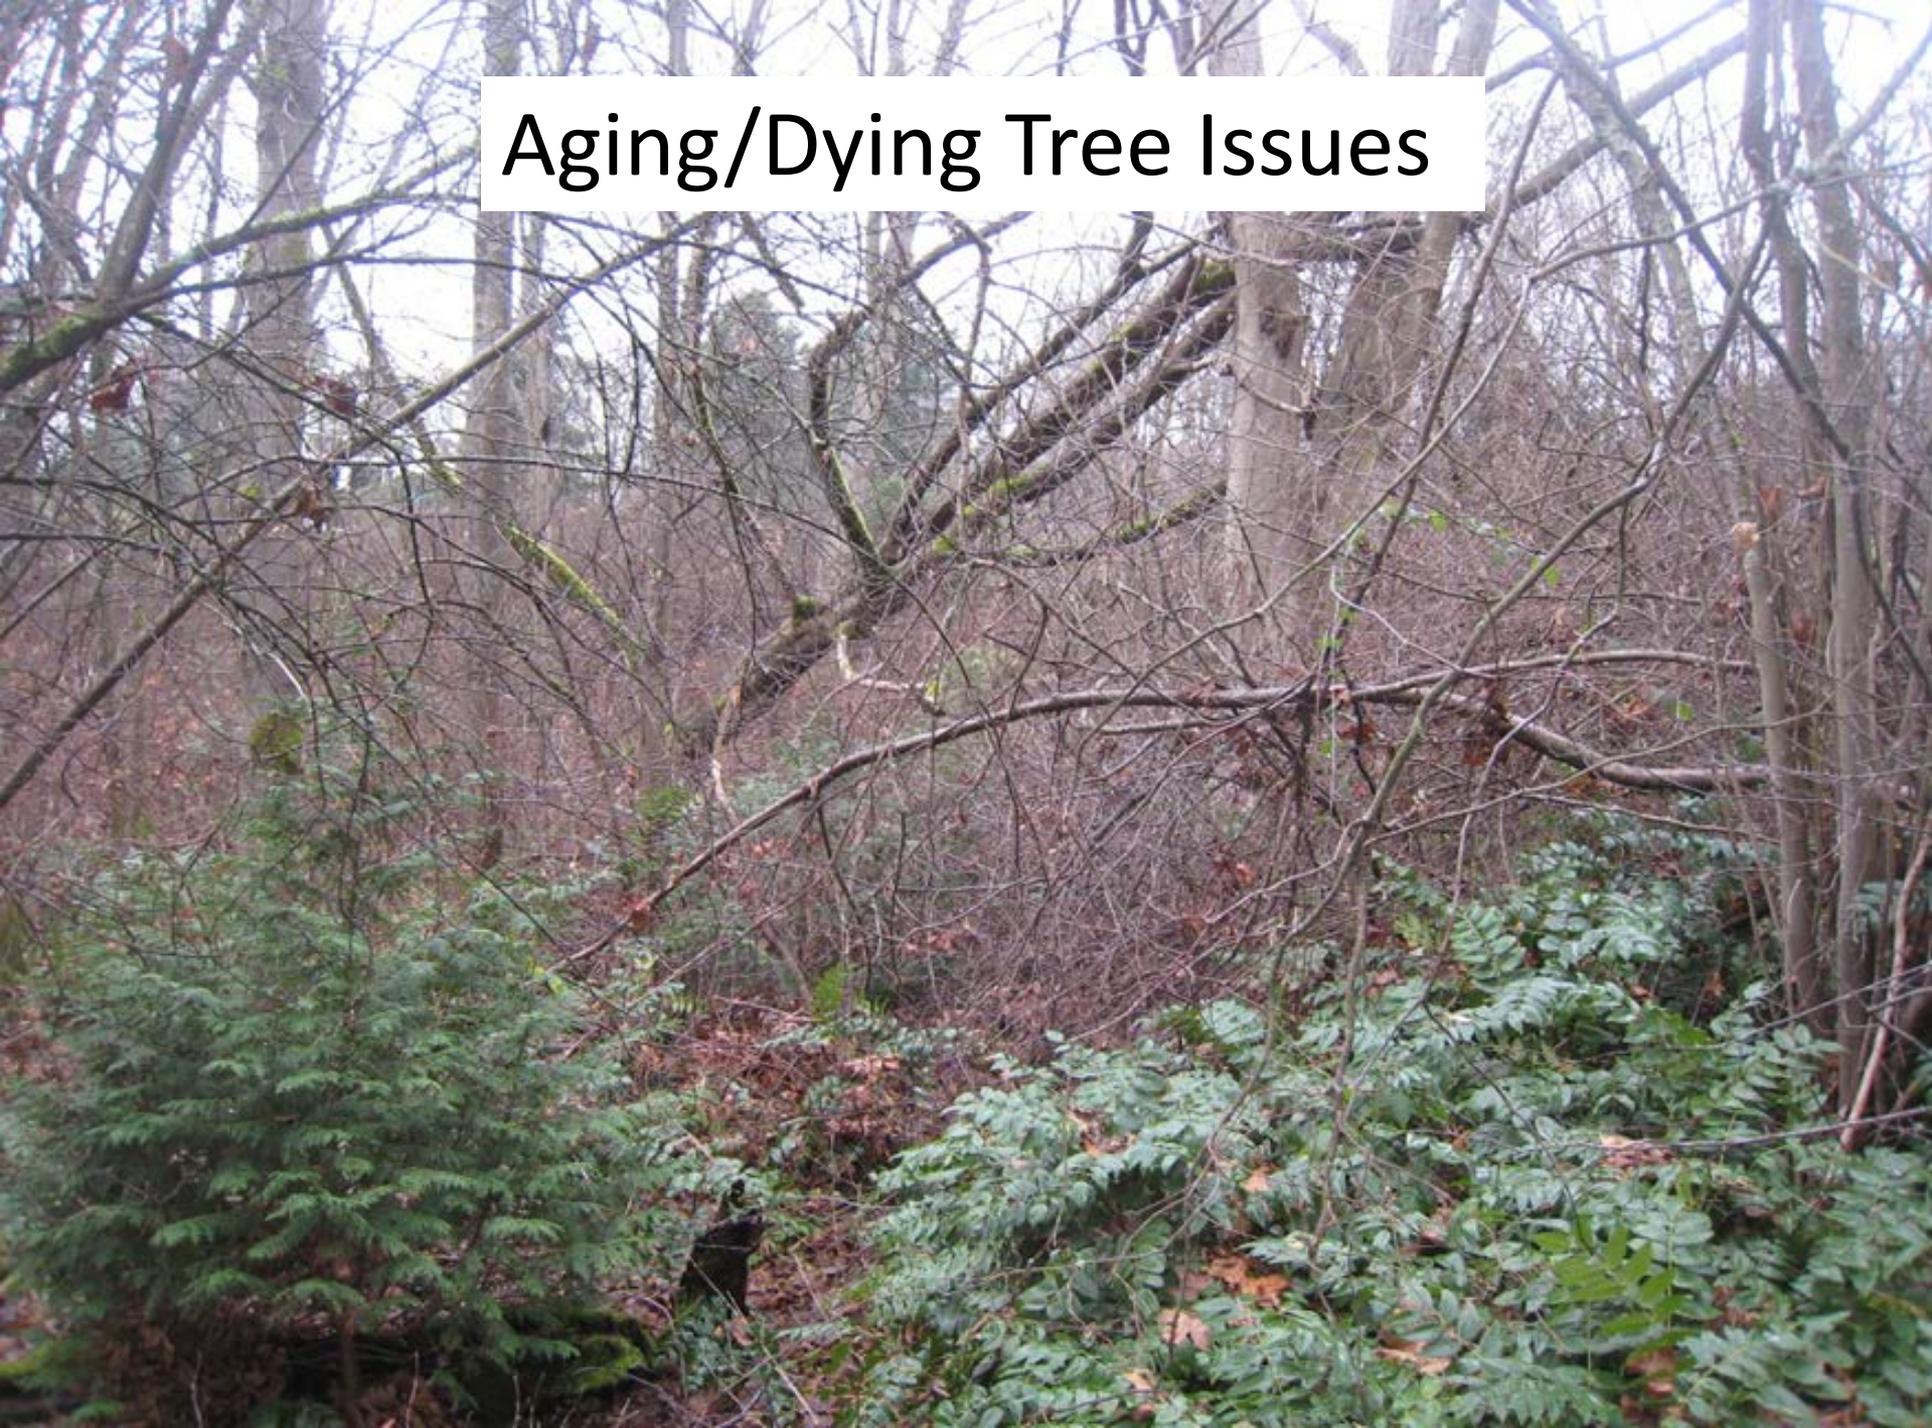

Aging/Dying Tree Issues

Aging/Dying Tree Issues

Aging/Dying Tree Issues

Zone 395 southeast border is steam side, near the 25 Ave
W entrance near the Emerson House. December 2011

Plantings include live staked Ninebark, Salmonberry, Twinberry, Red oiser Dogwood and No. 13 Rose hedge row. April 2016

SEATTLE PARKS AND RECREATION

Lawton Park

Park Boundary Issues

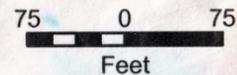

Legend

-  Lawton Park
-  Parcel Lines
-  Entrances
-  Paths

1 inch equals 150 feet

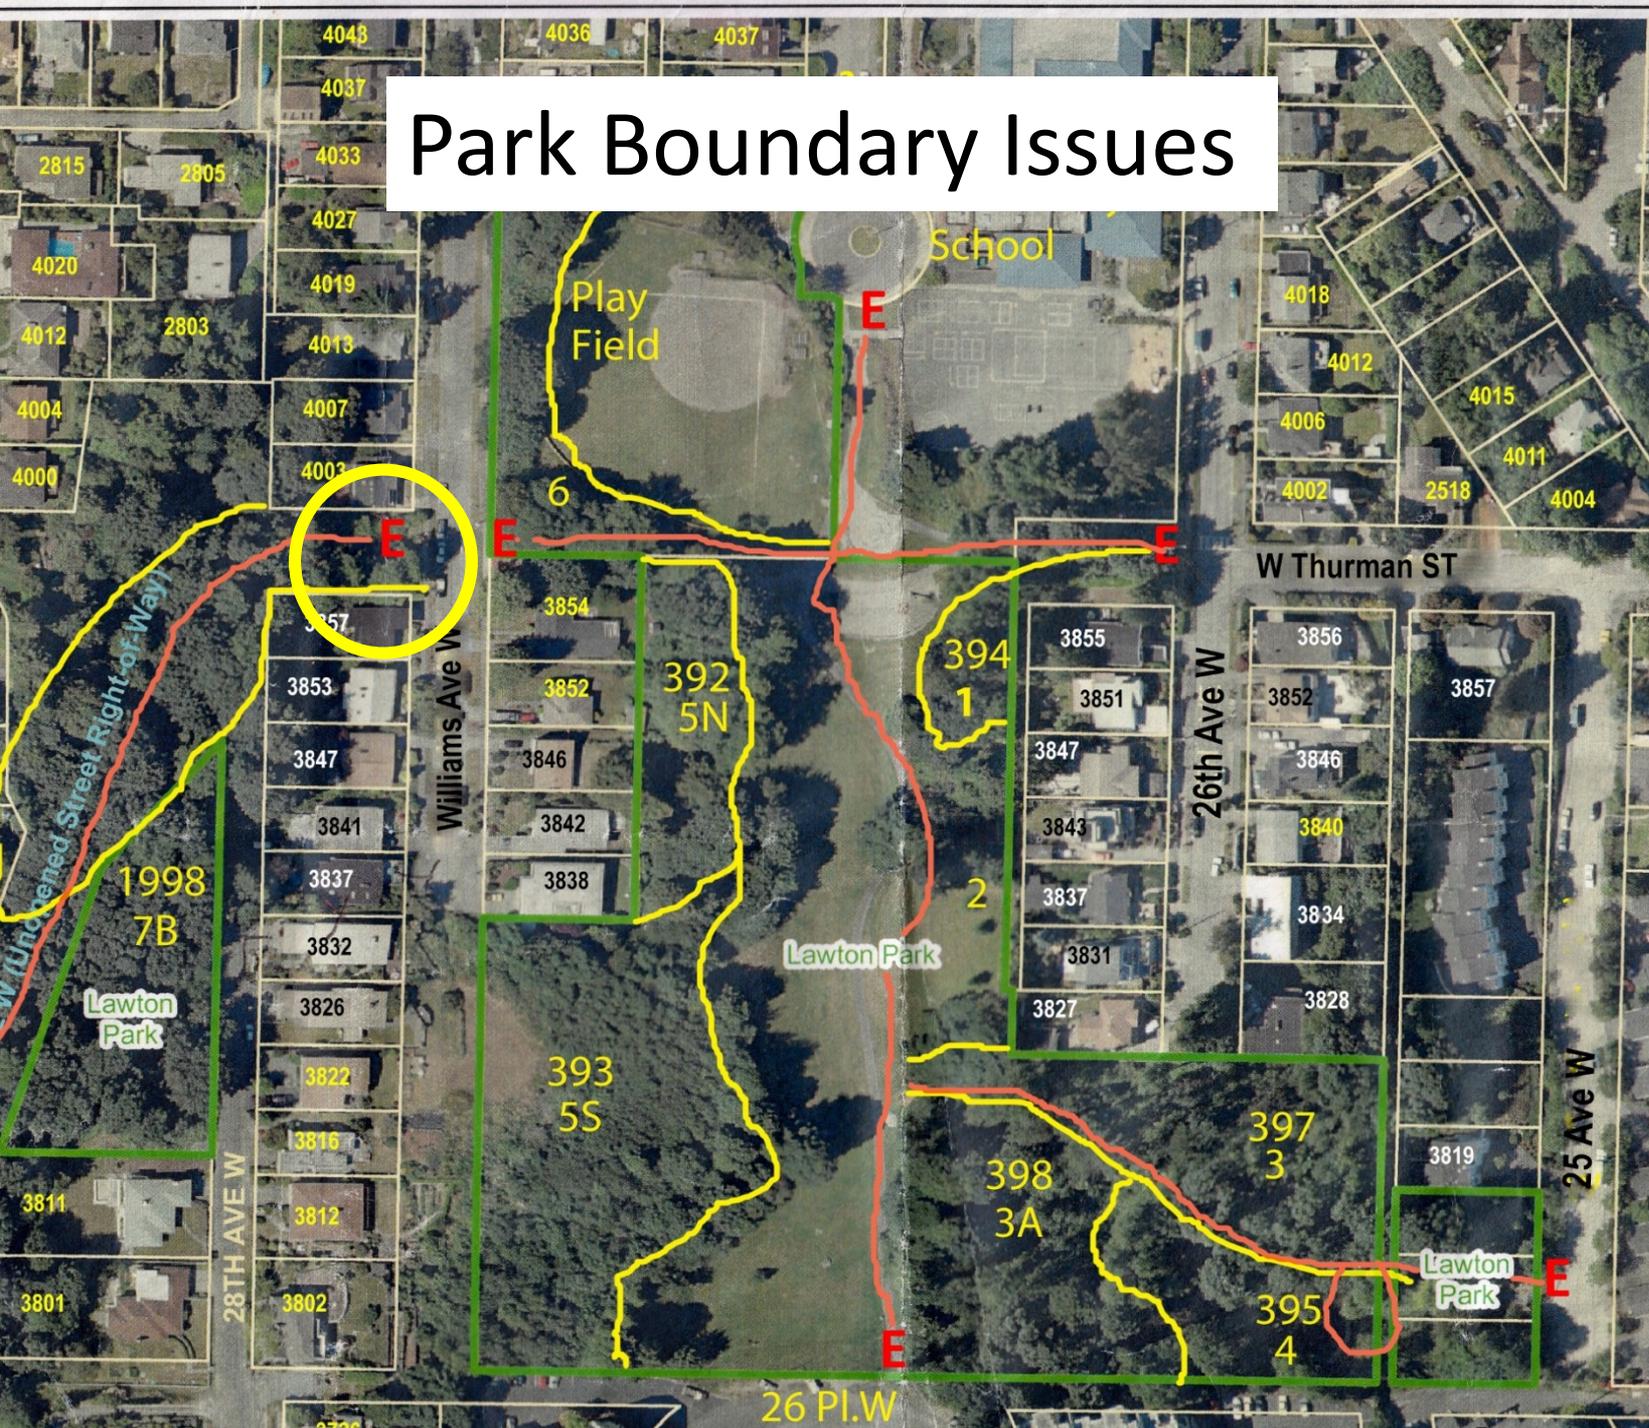

SEATTLE PARKS AND RECREATION

Lawton Park

Park Boundary Issues

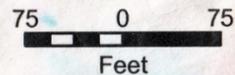

Legend

- Lawton Park
- Parcel Lines
- Entrances
- Paths

1 inch equals 150 feet

Jan. 2004, Entrance @ Williams Str. Area #25 looking West to ravine, hemlock is small on left. Laurel behind Salmonberry on upper right.

Mar. 2014, Salmonberry, hemlock is bigger on left, Laurel removed northside of entrance.

Thank you to: Rick
Hemmen and Michael Hanson